

The St. John's Lutheran Church Online Community guidelines are in place to help protect the privacy of our community and its members. Violating any of these guidelines will result in suspended access to the online environment. By becoming an online community member, you agree to the following rules of use:

- The Online Community is intended for personal and ministry use. It is not for solicitation of any kind. Do not use it for business purposes or for ministries, groups, etc. outside of the St. John's Lutheran Church community.
- Protect the privacy of members by not giving their phone numbers or other contact information to anyone outside of the Online Community. If you would like someone's number and they are 'unlisted', please ask them directly. St. John's Lutheran Church cannot give out this information without prior consent. Our leaders use this private information with care.
- Do not send or forward unsolicited or unnecessary emails, e.g., jokes, stories, petitions, etc., even if it's interesting, funny, or important. Use the Online Community with care and courtesy for personal and friendly communication. Do not add members to email lists outside the Online Community without prior consent.
- Members who engage in discussions are not to 'slam' other groups, churches, or organizations or attempt to solicit members for outside groups or organizations. Keep the Online Discussions and emails personal, positive, and profitable. Please note that these are subject to monitoring and moderation.
- Online Members who become inactive at St. John's or who do not follow these guidelines and/or abuse the Online Community will have their login access suspended.
- Members are to inform the Online Community Administrator of any problems so a resolution can be found. The Online Community Administrators are:
