

The best laid plans
of mice and men...
... often go awry

“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”

Jeremiah 29:11 (NIV)

I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep.

John 10:14-15 (ESV)

In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world.

John 16:33 (ESV)

And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me... And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

Matthew 28:18-20 (ESV)

I will never leave you nor forsake you.

Hebrews 13:5 (ESV)

the Gospel

Grace Changes Everything

A gospel which is only about the moment of conversion but does not extend to every moment of life in Christ is too small. A gospel that gets your sins forgiven but offers no power for transformation is too small. A gospel that isolates one of the benefits of union with Christ and ignores all the others is too small.

A gospel that must be measured by your own moral conduct, social conscience, or religious experience is too small. A gospel that rearranges the components of your life but does not put you personally in the presence of God is too small.

15 I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. 16 They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. 17 Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth.

18 As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. 19 And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth.
