DOES PRAYER
REALLY CHANGE THINGS?

Acts 17:1-9

But since we were torn away from you, brothers, for a short time, in person not in heart, we endeavored the more eagerly and with great desire to see you face to face.

DOES
REALLY CHANGE THINGS?

Praying for an increase and overflow
of love to all (1 Thess 3:12)

DOES
REALLY CHANGE THINGS?

Praying for inner strength to yield blamelessness and
holiness when the end comes

DOES
REALLY CHANGE THINGS?

As you pray for others, are these your prayer priorities?

Are you praying for others or just yourself?
