Question #1: Is God Real?

“The heavens declare the glory
of God, the sky above proclaims
His handiwork.”

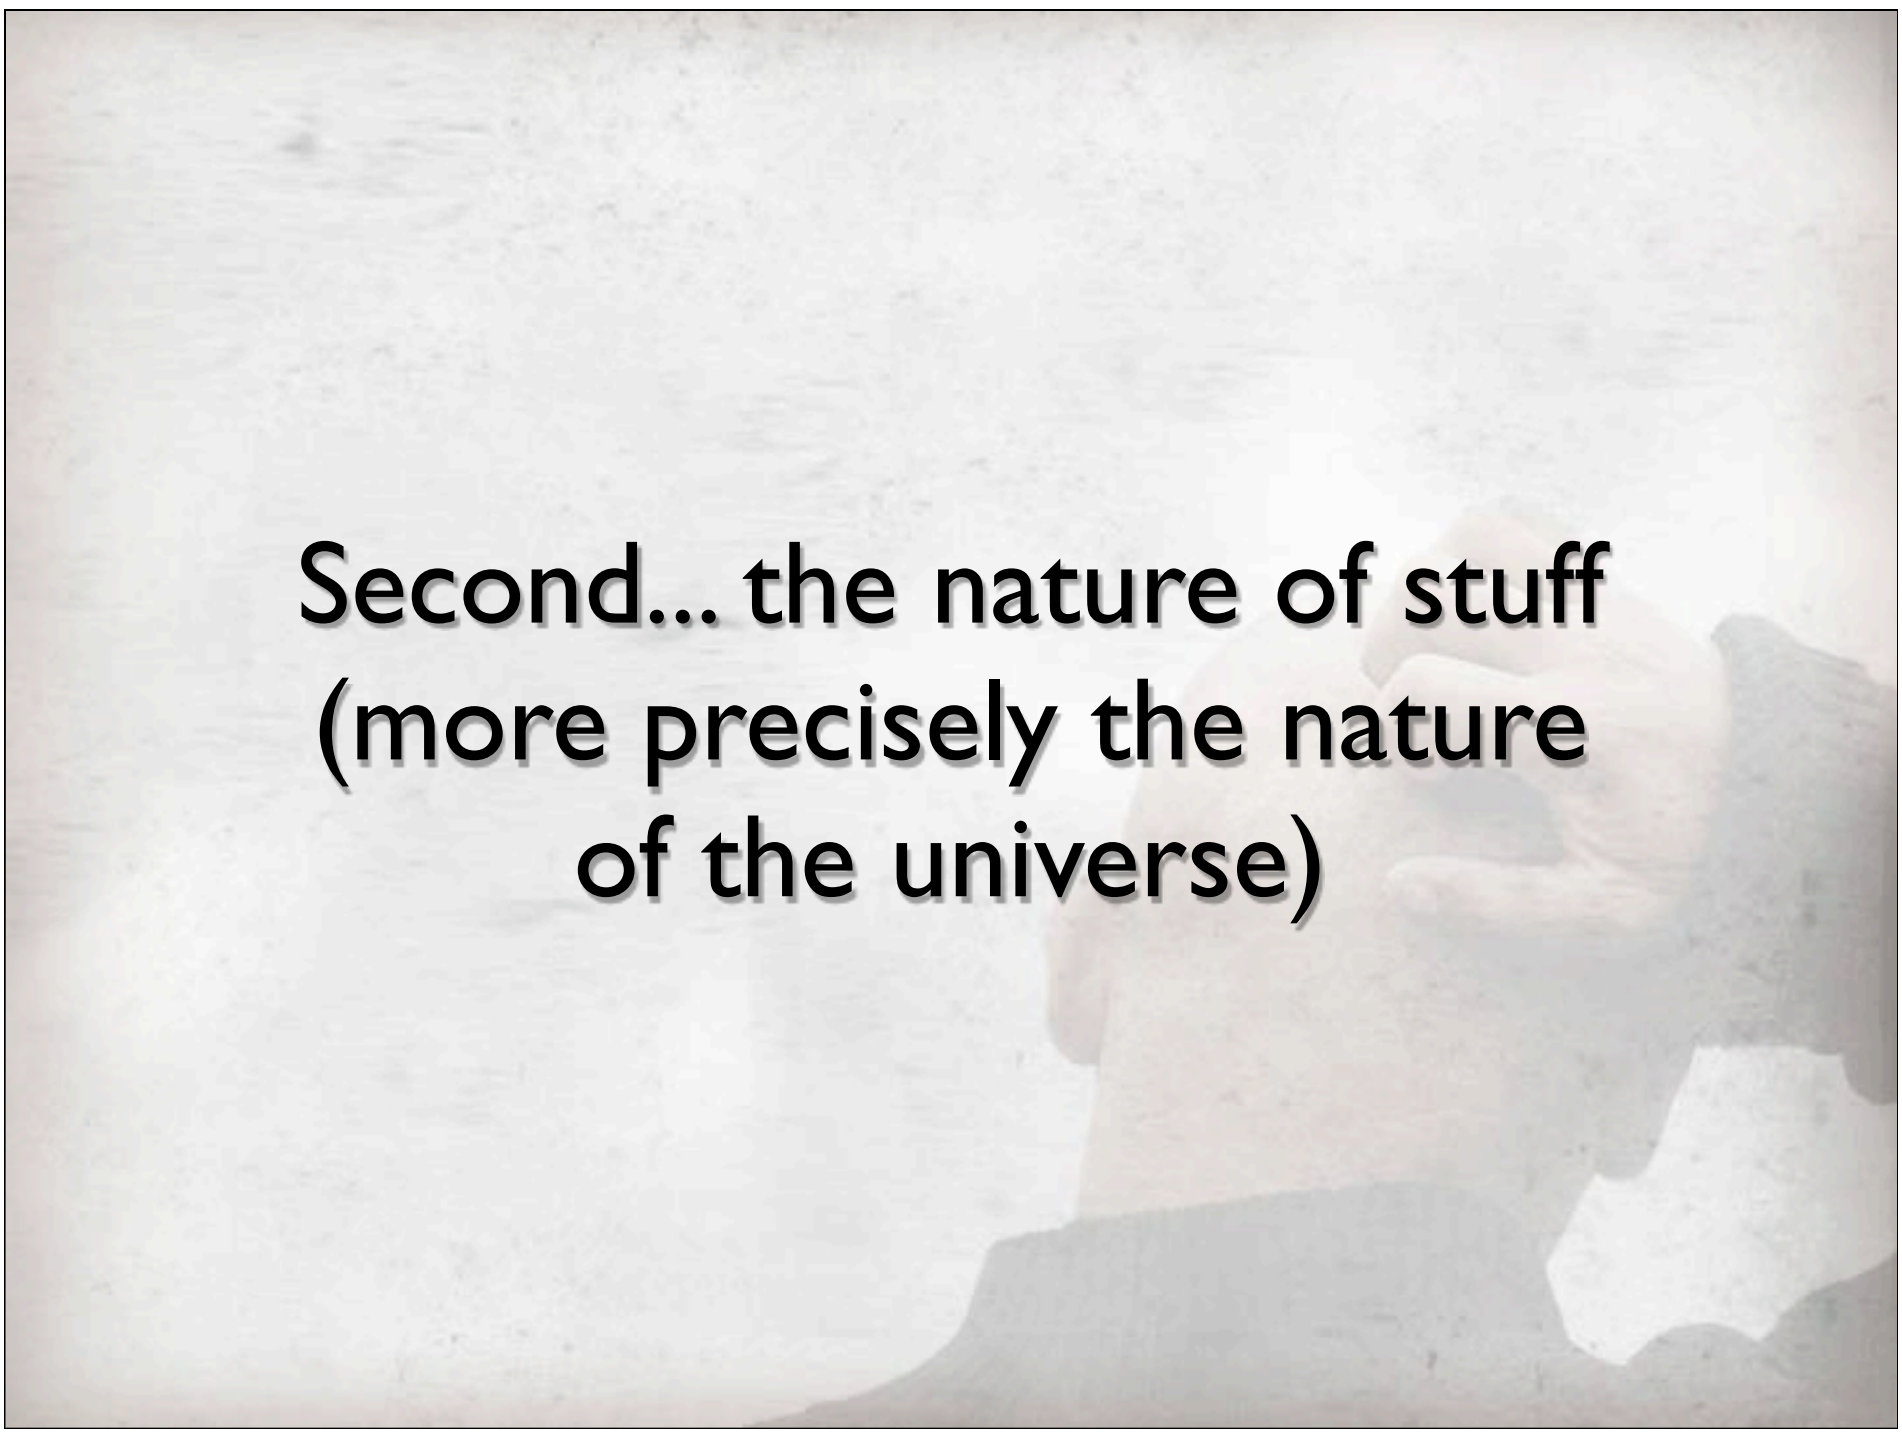

Psalm 19:1 (ESV)

A photograph of a person's hand resting on their head, suggesting deep thought or contemplation. The image is faded and serves as a background for the text.

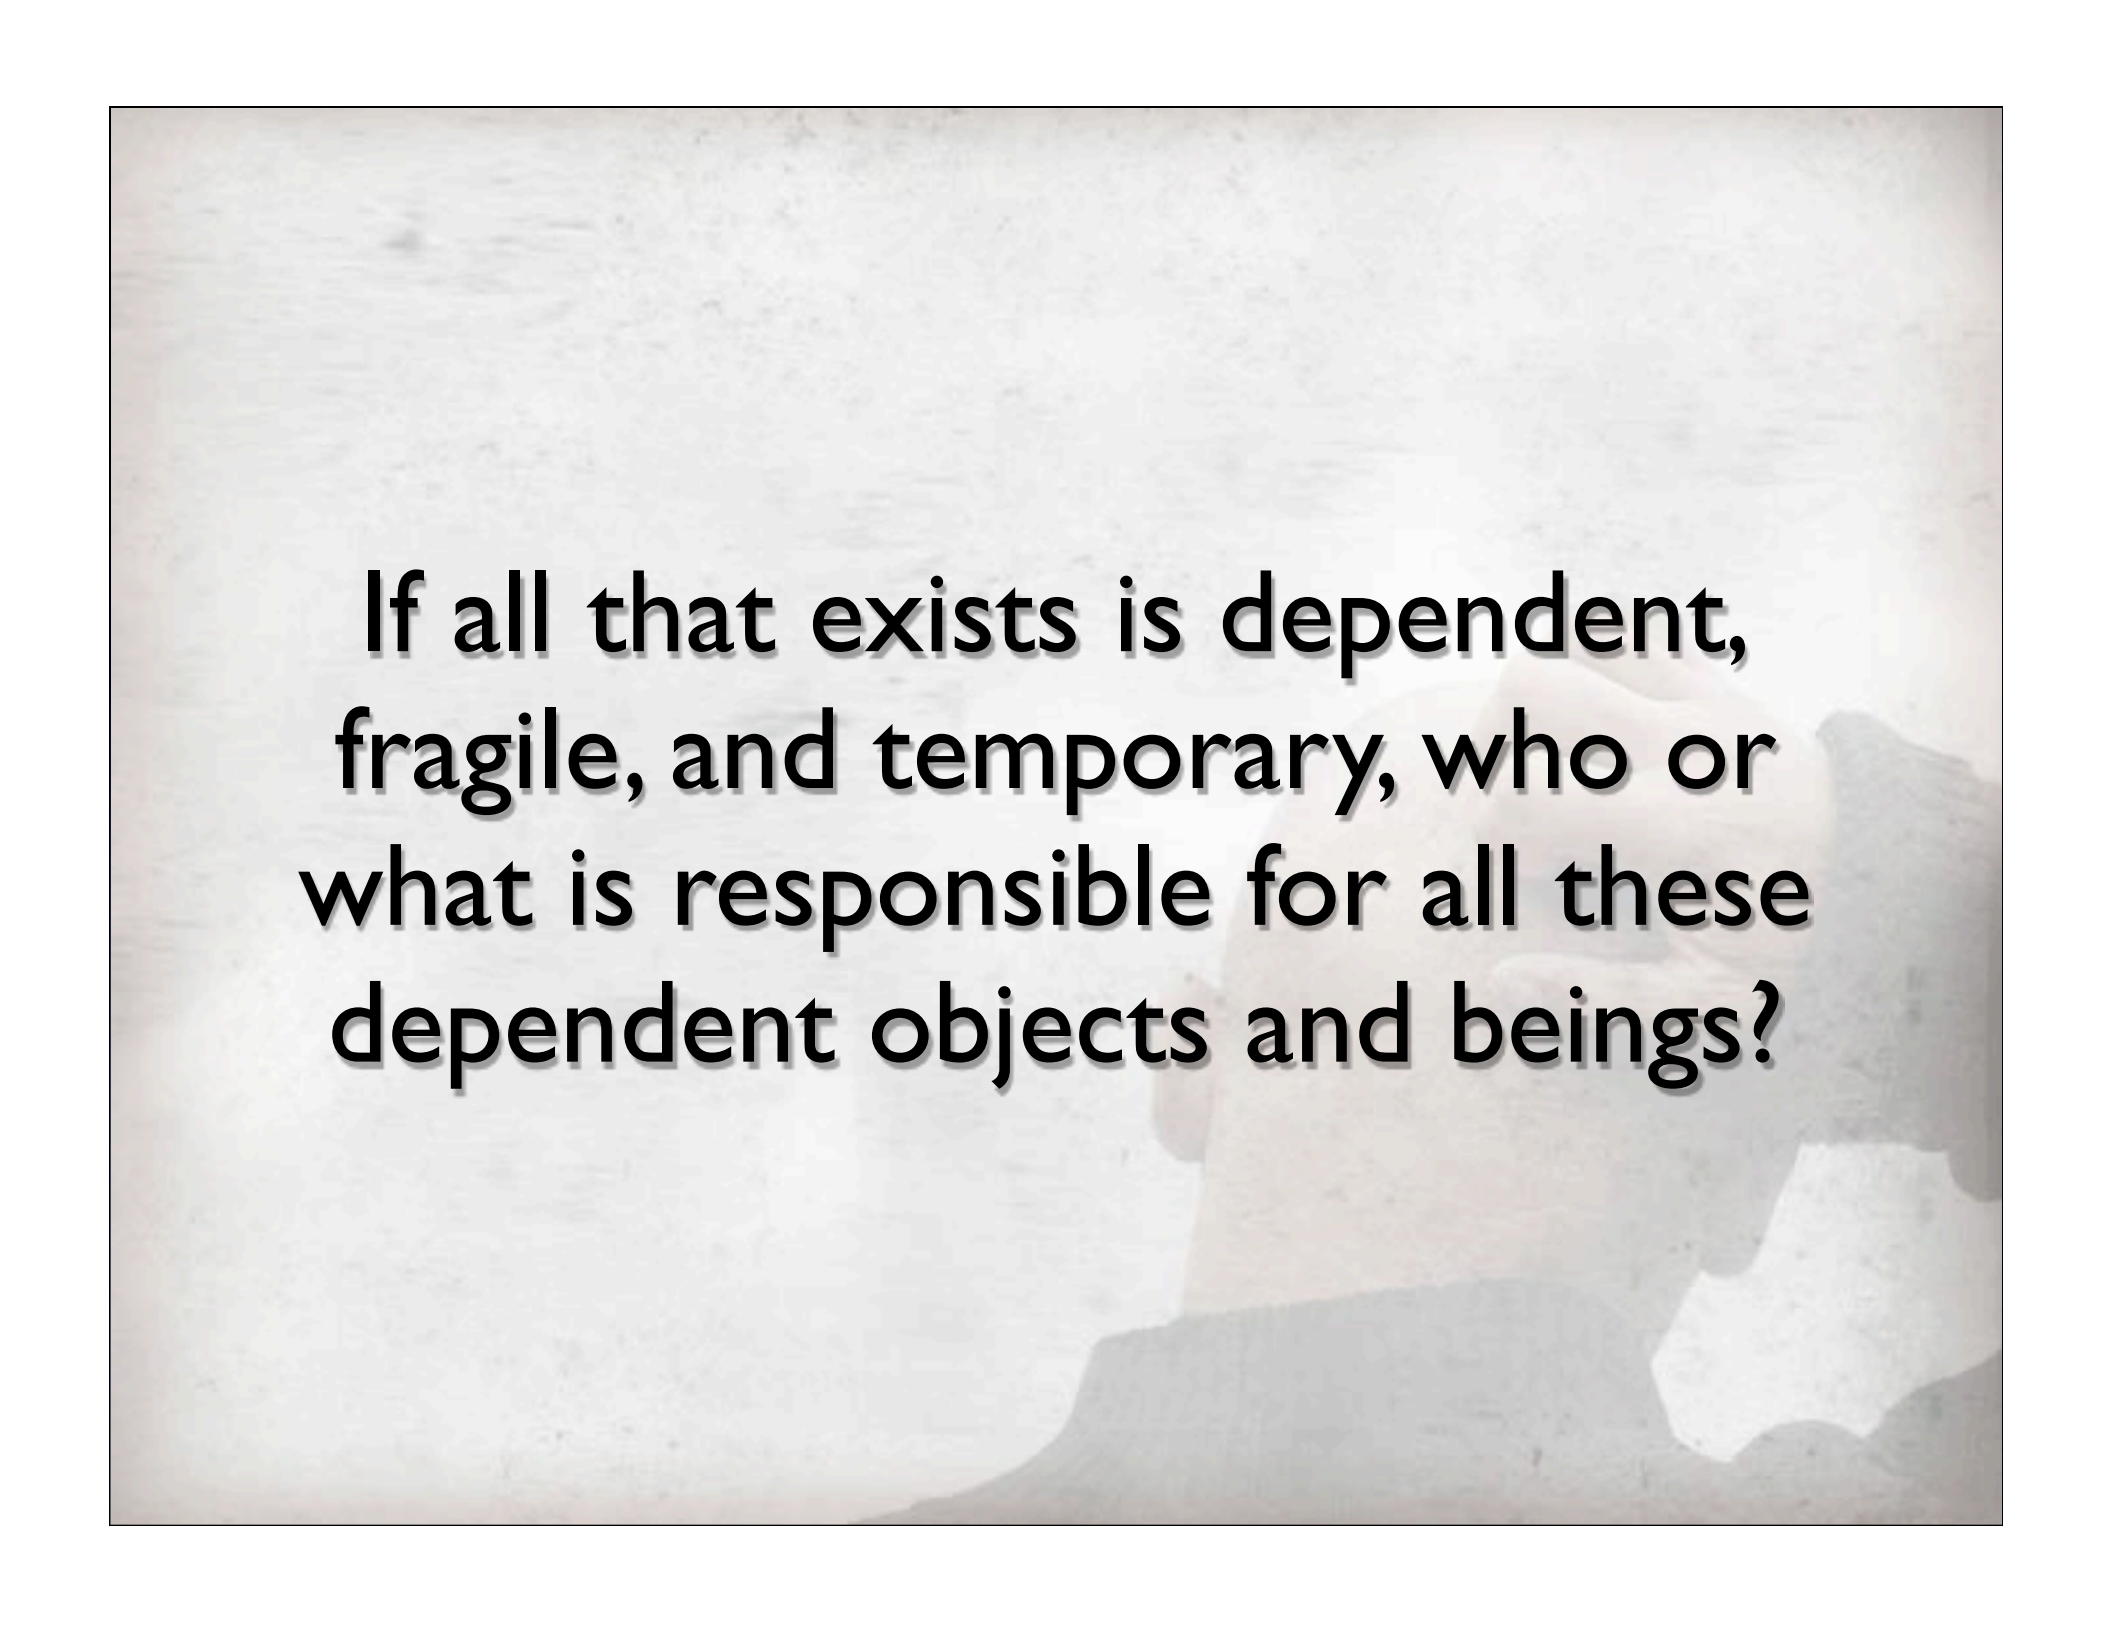

First... the existence of stuff!

The nature of cause and effect:
For every effect,
there has to be a cause

Second... the nature of stuff (more precisely the nature of the universe)

If all that exists is dependent, fragile, and temporary, who or what is responsible for all these dependent objects and beings?

“The heavens declare the glory
of God, the sky above proclaims

Psalm 19:1 (ESV)

Third... my sense of right & wrong

invisible does not mean unreal
