Perspective and Purpose

Psalm 8

¹LORD, our Lord, how magnificent is your name throughout the earth! You have covered the heavens with your majesty. ²From the mouths of infants and nursing babies, you have established a stronghold on account of your adversaries in order to silence the enemy and the avenger.

³When I observe your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you set in place, ⁴what is a human being that you remember him, a son of man that you look after him?

⁵You made him little less than God and crowned him with glory and honor.

⁶You made him ruler over the works of your hands; you put everything under his feet:

⁷all the sheep and oxen,
as well as the animals in the wild, ⁸the birds of the sky, and the fish of the sea that pass through the currents of the seas.

⁹LORD, our Lord, how magnificent is your name throughout the earth!

Psalm 8:1-9 (CSB)

Renew Our Perspective

A scenic landscape featuring a calm lake in the foreground, a dense forest of trees with autumn-colored foliage in the middle ground, and majestic mountains in the background under a clear sky. The scene is peaceful and natural.

The heavens are yours; the earth also is yours. The world and everything in it—you founded them.

Psalm 89:11 (CSB)

A scenic landscape with rolling green hills, a stone wall, and mountains in the background. The text is overlaid on the image.

²⁶Yes, God is exalted beyond our knowledge; the number of his years cannot be counted. ²⁷For he makes water drops evaporate; they distill the rain into its mist, ²⁸which the clouds pour out and shower abundantly on mankind.

²⁹Can anyone understand how the clouds spread out or how the thunder roars from God's pavilion? ³⁰See how he spreads his lightning around him and covers the depths of the sea.

Job 36:26-30 (CSB)

Look up and see! Who created these?

He brings out the stars by number;
he calls all of them by name.

Because of his great power and strength, not one of them is missing.

Isaiah 40:26 (CSB)

²⁶Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, according to our likeness. They will rule the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the livestock, the whole earth, and the creatures that crawl on the earth."

²⁷So God created man in his own image; he created him in the image of God; he created them male and female. ²⁸God blessed them, and God said to them,

"Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth, and subdue it. Rule the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, and every creature that crawls on the earth."

Genesis 1:26-28 (CSB)

The Son is the radiance of God's glory
and the exact expression of his nature, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high.

When we accept Jesus by faith,
we become a representation of God on earth with the potential to point others to eternity.
