

What is a “sermon series” group?

Our pastors and staff work on study guides each week that focus on the sermon text for the upcoming Sunday. Sermon based groups use these study guides as their material for group discussion. You can find these study guides in the lower lobby or posted on our website: southshorebaptist.com

What if I’m really busy?

It’s worth it! Joining other Christians in community and Bible study is essential for spiritual health and stability. Can you rearrange life just a bit to make some time?

On a practical note, some of our groups meet every-other-week. Jump into one of those if a weekly commitment is too much.

Ok, I’m in. How do I join?

Take a look at the list on the inner pages. Do you see a group that fits your interests & availability?

- If you feel comfortable, contact the leader of the group and share your interest.

- Contact Pastor Steve or someone from the leadership team (see back page for contact info)

What are Community Groups?

A small group of people who meet regularly to pray, study the Bible, and reach out together with the gospel as a guide in our everyday interactions.

Why should I join a Community Group?

That’s a good question. There are many demands on our schedules and we only have so much time and energy to give. We believe it is a worthwhile investment not only for your own growth but as you grow with other believers (Romans 12:10, 2 Corinthians 13:11). The most important reason for joining a Community Group is so that you can become more like Jesus Christ (Acts 17:26-27, 2 Corinthians 3:18, Galatians 4:19, 5:13, and Ephesians 4:32). Another reason to join a Community Group: These groups are great opportunities to learn as disciples who follow Christ together.

- *Studying/Applying Scripture together
- *Sharing the gospel
- *Serving others
- *Praying for one another
- *Persevering through pain/suffering
- *Loving one another

SSBC is a larger church, and it can be difficult to connect with people. You may feel that way already. Community Groups will give you space and opportunity to get to know other Christians on a deeper level.

Do you have a group that is near my home?

Probably. Check out the list on the inner pages or check in with a pastor. If you can’t find one near enough to you, perhaps you can be crucial to starting a new group!

What about child care?

Our leadership team (see the back page) can help you think through different strategies for making your group family-friendly. If necessary, we will work with you to provide childcare. Please contact Pastor Steve if you need assistance getting plugged into a group that can meet your needs.
