Women's Class

Taking Back Titus 2

Women of all ages needed! God has designed us to experience the strength and encouragement that flow out of doing life together and living gospel-adorned lives. Please join us as we explore how understanding each generation can help us walk alongside other women in the faith. The book, Organic Mentoring: A Mentor's Guide to Relationships with Next Generation Women, by Sue Edwards & Barbara Neumann will be provided.

Led by Sue Reed & Rindy Bennett

Cambodian Class

Our Cambodian brothers and sisters in our church family gather together weekly to study Scripture, pray together and spur one another on in the faith.

Middle School- Jonah

The book of Jonah shows us a God who relents, a God who is sovereign, and a God who is present among the mercies and trials of life. This class will also explore how we are more like Jonah than we might think and will bring the text to life by examining our own motives and affections.

Led by Gates & Sarah Bryant

Visionary Parenting

This 8-week study includes a 35-minute video featuring Dr. Rob Rienow, and a short discussion time. Topics include God's Grand Vision for the Family, A Vision for a Safe Home, A Vision of Multi-generational Faithfulness, A Vision of a God Filled Normal Life, A Vision of Biblical Fatherhood, A Vision of Biblical Motherhood, A Vision for Family Worship, and a Vision of Discipline that Disciples.

Making Sense of Forgiveness

We know Jesus calls us to forgive, but it can be hard to know what that looks like in complicated, messy relationships. The topic and practice of forgiveness doesn't overlook the realities of trauma and abuse while also helping the reader with everyday realities as we seek forgiveness and forgive one another. This book is a helpful resource in moving from hurt toward hope as we seek God and love one another.

Led by Pastor Steve Grissom

High School- Gospel 101

This class focuses on the "big picture" message of redemption. It equips students with the language of the gospel to confidently move past the fear of sharing their faith by living out of gospel community and Scripture knowledge. By defining the gospel and why it matters, readers will learn about God, humanity, Christ, justification, our response, and the implications of the gospel through pointed questions, Scripture reading assignments, and encouraged discussions.
