

You're Invited!

Dear Ladies,
Discover the awesome power of prayer and its life changing results. Be inspired by prayerful worship, prayer-filled workshops, and powerful times of prayer and teaching from God's Word.

I encourage you to come to this retreat with an attitude of openness and expectancy. Come with a yielded heart that says simply, "Lord change me!" I believe God is calling His people to pray more intently than ever before.

If you attend this retreat out of a deep hunger for effective, powerful prayer, be open to God's Holy Spirit and believe that your life will never be the same because prayer does, prayer can, and prayer will change your life ~ And our world.

In His Service,
Kris Di Leo

God's Plan For Prayer

The church is the center of God's plan for the world. The church has the important task of helping to build God's Kingdom and bring salvation. However, the church will only be strong in the task if God's power and grace are unleashed within the church. And that power is unleashed only through prayer and the teaching of God's Word.

The principles that you will be challenged to try and test at this retreat have been led to mounds of miracles and numerous open doors and they will lead you into a deeper walk with God as well.

Registration begins Sept. 16 - Oct. 2

WORKSHOPS

Choose 2 ~ (Morning & Afternoon)

You may sign up on Friday night or Saturday morning.

A Prayer For Those Dealing with Cancer: Sandy Limacher

The role of prayer and faith in dealing with cancer. From personal experience and victories, Sandy will share scripture promises and prayer for all affected by the diagnosis of cancer. All aspects of this on-going battle will be lifted up in prayer during this powerful workshop.

B Praying Effectively for the Lost: Suzy Hetos

"Praying Effectively for the Lost," by Lee. E. Thomas will serve as the basis for this workshop and future small group study. Suzy will stream-line this work, using Biblical teaching showing the constant pattern in scripture to intercede for another. One of the foremost reasons for praying for the lost is God's LOVE for them. Come and hear the cry of God's heart!

C Prayer for Local and National Issues and Officials: Sharon Gambino

A time to honor God and ask for His presence, wisdom, and direction for our nation and community. It will be a time to pray for our leaders and learn from scripture, God's plan for National Leadership and what our Christian responsibilities are regarding political issues.

D Prayer for Personal Needs: South Shores Women's Prayer Team

The definition of heal is "to make whole." Becoming whole involves every aspect of a person's being ~ physical, emotional, and spiritual. Our Prayer Team will be available one-to-one to personally pray for your specific need, concern or hurt.

E Prayer for Local and Global Missionaries: Susie Kisling

An artistic workshop to create a prayer reminder used to make a difference in the lives and ministries of our missionaries. "Make and Take" one to remind you to pray and one to share encouragement to our worldwide partners. Time will be spent praying for our missionaries using Prayer Guide handouts.

F Prayerful Hands in Action for the Sick and Hurting: Brenda Tuckley,

Connie Veldkamp, Helen Pierce, Lori Sgarlato, Women's Ministries:

Knots of Love, Prayers and Squares and South Shores Church Prayer Team ~ The phrase "ministry of intercession" is used generically to include a variety of prayer ministries. In its purest form, intercession is simply praying for others. This workshop is designed to share how several Women's Outreach Ministries intersect to give gifts of handwork and prayer-work.

G Let Prayer Change Your Life! Where Do I Begin? How to Keep Persevering:

Pam Spalding, Janice Tillotson

The who, what, when, and why of prayer. Learn to pray scripture, know who you are praying to, and recognize the obstacles to prayer.
