Getting into God's Word

Read Matthew 6:25-34

1. What is Jesus warning His followers against? In what areas of life?
2. What examples does Jesus use to give us assurance? How does that help?
3. How are we supposed to approach our basic needs differently than non-believers?
4. Is it okay to be concerned about food, clothing and shelter? How do you determine if it is appropriate or not?

Getting into Our Lives

1. What causes you anxiety? What worries do you have that a) you cannot do something about and b) have begun to interfere with your daily life and kingdom focus?
2. What will it look like to hand your worries over to God? How can you replace your anxiety with faith on a daily basis?

Getting Out the Gospel

1. Do you have any friends that deal with anxiety? What promises of peace and assurance can you think of that would be comforting to share with them?
