

HIGHER THAN THE RISING SUN

Let God's Redeemed Say So

- To be redeemed is to be RESCUED, saved from disaster.

Who Are The Redeemed?

- Only the blood-bought CHILDREN of God are redeemed.

What Are The Redeemed To Say?

- Tell others who you were and how God SAVED you.

Where Should The Redeemed Say It?

- Share the gospel WHEREVER you find yourself.

When Should It Be Said?

Why Should God's Redeemed Say So?

- Because God deserves the praise and the glory.
- Because our Lord commanded us to do so.
- Because we have a testimony to tell.
- Because the world needs to hear what we have to say.

PERSONAL STUDY HOMEWORK

Week of July 27 – August 1

Getting Started

1. Describe a time in your life when you had a great story to tell – a story of adventure, humor, accomplishment or love. Where you enthusiastic about telling others your story? Why?

Getting Into God's Word

Read Psalm 107:1-9

1. How does God demonstrate His goodness and love towards the redeemed? What does the psalmist say regarding how the redeemed should respond to God's goodness and love?

2. Read Acts 20:28, 1 Peter 1:18-19, and Revelation 5:9. According to the witness of Paul, Peter, and John, who are the redeemed of God and what identity or character do they take on?

Applying It In My Life

1. The psalmist calls on the redeemed of God to tell others about the goodness of God. What are the redeemed to say? Where are they to speak of the Lord? How does your story reflect the redeeming power of God? Who could you share your story with?

2. We conclude our series in the Psalms this week. How has this series, Higher Than the Rising Sun, helped you to look past your present circumstances and see the LORD God for who He is?
