PERSONAL STUDY HOMEWORK

Week of December 23-29

Getting Started .....

1. Describe a time in your life where you had to wait patiently and expectantly for something you greatly desired? For the family in our video this Sunday it was their Dad returning home. What was it for you?

Getting Into God's Word .....

Read Isaiah 9:1-7 & 11:1-5 (In preparation to answer questions)

1. God gave His people numerous clues of a coming Savior. What were some of those vital clues? When and how did God give these clues to the people and their leaders? Where do we see these clues fulfilled in Jesus' story?

2. When Jesus came to earth, many who had waited expectantly missed out on recognizing him as Savior and King because he was not what they were expecting. How was Jesus different than the Messiah they were expecting?

Applying It In My Life .....

1. What are some of the common misunderstandings today regarding Jesus and His kingship? Where does Jesus, come in human flesh and offering himself as the sacrifice for sin, fall short of the expectations, hopes and desires of many around us?

2. As you celebrate the birth of the King born among shepherds what are the different ways Jesus has abundantly fulfilled your expectations? In what ways are you grateful for His work in your life? How do you desire to grow in your friendship with Jesus, the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords?
