Living into Advent Through Renewed Worship

Advent is a four week period beginning four Sundays before Christmas and observed as a season of prayer, fasting and renewed worship preparing for the birth and second coming (judgement day) of Jesus. There are many ways to live into this season, including family devotions around your Advent Wreath using the devotionals available at St. Michael's Church.

Advent is also about renewing worship, for if we're not careful, worship can feel stale and inconsistent. It's one of the reasons why today we will take the time for an Instructed Eucharist to explain what and why we do what we do!

Additionally, here are four ways to renew your worship that you can begin today!

1. Arrive earlier to church so you're not rushed. Once you arrive, take the time to put on a nametag (nametags are for regulars so newcomers and others can know you by name, and they are for newcomers so that regulars can know you by name)!
2. As you find your seat, and even if just for Advent, sit closer to the front. Why? The closer to the front you are the more engaged you will feel! Try sitting in a different pew and experience how that renews your experience of worship. As you arrive in your pew, and in preparation for worship, kneel to pray and invite the Holy Spirit into our worship. Then cue up those readings in the pew Bible that will be read in church.
3. If you're not doing so already, make an Advent commitment to come each and every Sunday. Something beautiful happens when we worship with continuity Sunday after Sunday. It not only blesses you to be faithful to the sabbath, your presence will inspire others.
4. As you leave, ask yourself, who will I invite next week? We are renewed in worship when we invite someone and see worship through their eyes.

Welcome to St. Michael's

- Welcome to St. Michael's! We are so glad you are here!
- Please continue your tithes and offerings. We have three ways to give:
 1. Mail a check to the church at 71 Broad Street, 29401
 2. Go on our website and give electronically (under Giving)
 3. Text stm to 73256 (REALM)

Today's Sermon

Fruitfulness and Joy

Preacher: The Rector

Today is that one Sunday of the year where we slow down our worship for something we call an Instructed Eucharist. The purpose of the Instructed Eucharist is to explain why we do what we do in worship. Like why do we have confession before Communion? What does the wafer we receive at communion really signify? What does all of this have to do with my life? Ironically, the Gospel for today is all about fruitfulness. How can we be fruitful if we don't really know why we worship? So come with a teachable spirit as together we are refreshed with the why's of what we do!

✠ Denotes pausing for Instructed Eucharist

The Processional, standing

The liturgy begins with the Acclamation, which is an “eager expression” of praise.

Welcome

Revelation 22:20

Officiant Surely the Lord is coming soon.

People Amen. Come Lord Jesus!

In this Prayer for Purity, we ask God to cleanse our hearts and minds of anything that comes between Him and us, anything that would impede our worship of Him. We offer to Him our whole selves that we might decrease and that He might increase, to the glory of Jesus Christ.

The Collect for Purity

All Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And with your spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.

The Collect of the Day

Blessed Lord, who caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and the comfort of your holy Word we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Scriptures teach that much of our spiritual renewal is by the washing of the Word of God, which cleanses our minds and purifies our hearts.

The Lesson: Romans 15:1-6, seated

Bible, p. 949

After the reading, the Reader says

The Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

The word Gospel comes from an old German word which means “Good News,” the great good news about Jesus the Messiah. We stand for the Gospel reading to show the importance we place on Jesus’ words and actions.

The Gospel, standing

Bible, p. 808

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew 3:10-12

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After the Gospel, the Reader says

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ!

Homily

Fruitfulness and Joy
The Rector

Nicene Creed, together, all standing

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, visible and invisible.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And with your spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.

Prayers of the People, kneeling

Leader Heavenly Father, we know we are at our most joyfilled when we are using the gifts you've given us and bearing fruit! Help us understand what our gifts are and empower them for your glory to bear fruit for the Kingdom! Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader We pray for God's people throughout the world; for Foley, Archbishop of the Anglican Church in North America, Chip, our Bishop, and for the clergy, staff, and congregation of St. Michael's Church. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For all those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity. We also lift up those who have come to us for prayers of healing, especially Bettie Clark, Cantey Hare, Jim Holman, Kristine Schaffer, Richard Scurry, and Mary Harris Wickline. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader For all those who have departed this life in the certain hope of the resurrection. Lord, in your mercy:

People Hear our prayer.

Leader In these and in all ways, we give thanks to you Lord God, for your goodness, for your listening ears, healing hands, and caring heart.

People Amen.

The Nicene Creed is a statement of what the Christian community believes to be true about God. It was born of rigorous intellectual debate in the fourth century, culminating in councils of whole church at Nicaea in 325 and at Constantinople in 381. The word creed comes from the Latin credo for "I believe."

Catholic simply means universal, not specifically the Roman Catholic Church.

The Prayers of the People: This is a time during our service to pray for some people by name, who have requested prayers from us. We are limiting those mentioned "out loud" to the five most recent requests from church members and their families, but please note the following:

More than 60+ Prayer Ministers at St. Michael's Church are praying for more than 50 people by name each day. Just because we have not said their name does not mean they are not being prayed for faithfully and daily. Also, please understand that we don't put anyone on any prayer list without their permission.

To place someone on our prayer list, please call the church. We also offer prayer teams who can come to you, by appointment, to offer in depth prayer for your needs.

We would love for you to become one of our Prayer Ministers, who receive weekly updates on the needs of those on our list and pray for these needs daily.

In the Confession of Sin and Absolution, our sins, both individual and corporate, have been confessed, and we have been powerfully reassured of God's complete forgiveness through Jesus Christ. We begin with a cleansing admission and confession of sin followed by an authoritative pronouncement of God's forgiveness in Christ Jesus. This is always "ground zero" for Christians. We move out from here.

The Peace is a particularly good time to welcome visitors and newcomers. Please take a moment to extend God's peace to those around you. That peace, which the world cannot give, comes only through the forgiving of Jesus Christ. This peace is not rooted in our circumstances but in the presence, promise, and power of God and Christ's redeeming work.

2022 Stewardship Update

Budget
$2,092,670

Received
as of Dec. 1
$1,690,609

Hopefully most of you have received your annual giving update in the mail from St. Michael's in the last week or two. It is important for everyone to fulfill their annual pledge in the next few weeks. Also, we rely on those who do not pledge to be generous in their year end giving to the church. We need to "finish well" to achieve a balanced budget again this year. Thank you for your support of St. Michael's Church!
Gary DiCamillo
Treasurer

The Confession, kneeling

Officiant Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.
(Silence to reflect on those you have hurt and on those who have hurt you.)

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, maker and judge of us all: We acknowledge and lament our many sins and offenses, which we have committed by thought, word, and deed against your divine majesty, provoking most justly your righteous anger against us. We are deeply sorry for these our transgressions; the burden of them is more than we can bear.

Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for your Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past; and grant that we may evermore serve and please you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Absolution

Officiant Almighty God our heavenly Father, who in his great mercy has promised forgiveness of sins to all those who sincerely repent and with true faith turn to him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace, standing

Officiant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with your spirit.

Then the Ministers and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome & Announcements, seated

Holy Communion

(ACNA Prayer Book, beginning p. 132)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And with your spirit.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them up to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Officiant And so we join the angels and the archangels and all the company of heaven who forever say this hymn to the glory of your name.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Prayer of Consecration, kneeling

Celebrant On the night that Jesus was betrayed, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat; this is my Body, which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, Jesus took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the forgiveness of sins: Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me."

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, and we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Word and Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Sanctify us also, that we may worthily receive this holy Sacrament, and be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us and we in him. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us with all your saints into the joy of your heavenly kingdom, where we shall see our Lord face to face.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

Officiant And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, *who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.*

The Holy Communion, the Supper of the Lord, is not only a sign of the love that Christians ought to have among themselves for each other but is especially a sacrament of our redemption by Christ's death.

The Sanctus is the song of the seraphim contained in the great vision that the prophet Isaiah experienced while worshiping in the Temple in Jerusalem. This vision is recorded in the 6th chapter of Isaiah. It is inspired by Isaiah's vision of the heavenly court "Holy, holy, holy" acknowledging transcendence of God.

The Lord's Prayer, so called because Jesus gave this prayer to His disciples as an example of how to pray, has been a part of Eucharistic liturgies since year 400 A.D. The link between our daily bread and the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist is very ancient. In the Lord's Prayer, we ask for daily bread, meaning the things we need to get through each day. But as a part of that, the sacramental bread also symbolizes God's presence, which is something that is also essential to our getting through the day.

During Communion:

When we gather together, we remember the presence of Jesus. By repeating the words and actions of Jesus' last meal with His disciples, we join the story and make it our own. We don't just watch the drama or listen to it unfold, we enter into the story as we, too, take the bread and wine and eat and drink.

* Gluten Free Wafers are Available: If you need a gluten free wafer, please indicate this at the altar rail by placing your hand over your heart.

We stand to mark the fact that because we have received the body and blood of Jesus, we are changed people. We began on our knees and end standing through his body and blood.

We have been blessed by being here. Now, at the end of the service, we are reminded that God takes loving delight in blessing us abundantly. We leave in peace, forgiven, fed, and sent out with a purpose to make Christ known in the world.

As the celebration ends, we are charged to "go forth." The Eucharist is therefore not an exclusive gathering that separates us from the world but a challenge to reach out beyond our own church to the world around us.

Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the people of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The Invitation

The congregation will now receive communion at the rail, kneeling at the rail for the wafer and cup, or receiving a mini-chalice (to be consumed at the rail). Holy Communion is open to all baptized Christians. Everyone is invited to sing during communion.

Post Communion Prayer, standing

All: Heavenly Father, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal Kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Advent Blessing

May he whose second Coming in power and great glory we await, make you steadfast in faith, joyful in hope, and constant in love; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

Processional

Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus

- Come, Thou long-expected Jesus, born to set Thy people free; From our fears and sins release us; let us find our rest in Thee. Israel's strength and consolation, hope of all the earth Thou art; Dear desire of every nation, joy of every longing heart.

The Dismissal

Celebrant Alleluia! Alleluia! Let us go forth into the world to transform hearts...

People through Jesus Christ our Lord. Alleluia! Alleluia!

GREENERY HELP NEEDED:

As we approach Christmas this year the Flower Guild would like to invite you to participate in the greening of the Church by donating greenery from your gardens. If you have "Little Gem" magnolia, boxwood, or holly or other evergreens typically used at holiday time that are over-grown and need a little thinning out, please call Mary Scarborough 843-270-7117 to arrange a time for cutting, 6" - 8" pieces. The cost of flowers and greenery has increased significantly over the past ten years and gathering plant material from our yards is an enormous help. Thank you for considering this opportunity for giving out of your abundance!

Christmas Pageant

Sunday, December 18

The pageant will take place during the 9:00 am Contemporary Service.

The 8:00 am and 11:00 am services will remain at their usual times with Holy Communion.

You can still pack a shoebox for Operation Christmas Child!

Just use the QR code to go online to our packing site. Make your choices, pay $25, and BOOM! You packed a shoebox! Bring the joy of the season and the hope of Christ to a child today.
