

MONTHLY WEDNESDAY MEN'S LUNCH

---

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 2
12 NOON IN THE ST. PHILIP'S PARISH HALL

SPEAKER: The Rev. Dr. Marion Platt

A native of Charleston, the Reverend Dr. Marion Platt served two enlistments as a U.S. Army infantryman before embarking on a nineteen-year ministry with The Salvation Army. He has held executive, academic, and pastoral roles in several cities across the South; he earned his doctoral degree from Trevecca Nazarene University (Nashville) and is a sought-after lecturer, evangelist, and revivalist.

Dr. Platt has been a Rotarian for sixteen years, is vice-president of the Southern Organization for Human Services, and serves on the Faith-Based Advisory Council of the International African American Museum in Charleston. He is the sixth executive director and pastor of Star Gospel Mission's 117-year history.

Dr. Platt is father to Dina, Josh, and Zion, husband to Ev, and neighbor to everyone. When he isn't serving others, he can be found fishing with his grandfather, running long distances in the sun, or quietly listening to jazz music.

---

Men of all faiths are welcome and encouraged to attend.