RESOURCE BANK

PURPOSE

To share program materials and organizational helps with each other.

KINDS OF MATERIALS

1. Program materials for: regular meetings, special events, conventions, retreats, special services, etc. Some may be full-length programs; others may be shorter program items.
2. Bible Studies
3. Bible Teaching Games
4. Organizational Hints that have been successful in carrying out the business and function of a group.

HOW TO MAKE A DEPOSIT IN THE BANK

1. Send materials that you have found useful that could be shared with other groups. This is not necessarily a one-time thing, you may send as often as you have something new to contribute.
2. Include the author's name if you know it.
3. DO NOT send copyrighted material.

HOW TO MAKE A WITHDRAWAL FROM THE BANK

1. Consult this catalog for materials suitable for your needs. Materials are listed under 6 categories.
  - Category A has longer programs of various kinds.
  - Category B has shorter program items that could be used in conjunction with other materials.
  - Category C has one session or two-session Bible studies suitable for a retreat. There are no study guides included with these studies.
  - Category D lists the annual Bible studies. These have study guides. Some of these study books are still in stock; others are not. Some books can be printed for custom orders. {See order form for pricing and availability}
  - Category E has organizational helps.
  - Category F has Bible teaching games.
2. When placing your order, include both the catalog item number as well as the title of the materials you desire. The item number consists of the capital letter (designating the category in which the item is listed), plus the number. Ex: A-1 "A Christmas Trilogy"
3. Include your name, mailing address, phone number and email address. Mail or Email your request to the Materials Resource Coordinator.
4. All items in the catalog are free except Category D, the annual Bible studies. Please see current order form for prices and availability of study books and/or leader guides.
5. Some items may need editing to delete reference to specific dates, places, or circumstances that no longer apply. Some materials can be revised to better fit your circumstances of cast, settings, use, etc.
6. Your order will be filled with one copy of each item requested from which you are free to make as many copies as needed.

CATALOG OF PROGRAM RESOURCES

NOTE: Materials are listed under categories denoted by capital letters. Each item also has a number. The letter and the number constitute the order number for that item. Thus, the order number for “A Christmas Trilogy” would be A-1. The title of the item should also be included on the order blank.

- A-12 “The Journey Home” Fashion Show
A Christian Fashion Show written by Kathy Peterson, Chippewa Falls, WI. Clever dialogue and a fine message.
- A-13 “Lo, He Comes” Advent/Christmas
A program to enrich the symbolism of the Advent wreath and Advent Branch, using 3 “voices” (or a speech choir) and a narrator. Includes group singing of Christmas carols. Needs Advent wreath and branch, plus symbols of: rose, tau cross, sun, scepter and crown, cross, dove, lyre – made from paper, felt, or Styrofoam. Could be divided into 2 shorter programs.
- A-14 “Christmas Program” Christmas
Explores meaning of Christmas customs and traditions: gifts, tree, lights, carols, cards and seals. Uses a leader and readers (or could be groups) for the Scripture, carols sung by the audience.
- A-15 “The Light of Christmas” Christmas
Short Christmas program that points out the responsibility that the Christmas Gospel gives believers. Uses 4 readers (could be only 2 alternating), a flannelgraph with figures of a star and rays.
- A-16 “Carols to the Christ Child” Christmas
Bible carols: Isaiah, Mary, Zacharias, Angels, Shepherds, Simeon, then our own carol. Each segment has a Bible reading, responsive reading, and the singing of the carol. Words and music of carols are included.
- A-17 “Light a Candle for the Savior” Christmas
Christmas program in 3 parts: Candle Foregleams (prophecies), Candle Gleams (Christmas story), Candle Aftergleams (blessings of grace, love, peace and joy that come from Christ), plus a personal candle lighting conclusion. Uses a reader and the audience reads Scripture and sings carols. Provides full copy for reader and musician (also showing candle arrangement), and a copy for audience participation. Uses 19 candles of various sizes.
- A-18 “The Structure of Neighborliness” Evangelism
Program on evangelism and witnessing; uses a modern parable based on the Good Samaritan parable of Jesus to provide opportunity for good basic discussion about sharing Christ with people in our everyday life. Uses a moderator, parable reader, 3 panel members.
- A-19 “Hats Off to Mom” Mother-Daughter Event
The program features hats as decorations to symbolize the many “hats” a mother wears. It calls for a narrator, and the following Moms: Dr. Mom, Rhetorical Mom, Philosopher Mom, Comedian Mom, Mrs. Mom, Sympathetic Mom, Dear Mom, Sergeant Mom, and 4-Start General Mom
- A-20 “Basket Style Show” Fashion Show
The script is carried entirely by an MC or narrator, who describes and explains the basket that each of 13 women bring on stage, one at a time. Each comment includes an appropriate Scripture verse or citation. Baskets needed are: baby, bushel, bread, laundry, fruit, cleaning, offering, flowers, sewing, waste, picnic, gift, and basket case.
- A-21 “A Place for Youth in the Church” Youth
The program is for youth and about youth rather than for women to produce. It has 5 Bible characters, 2 modern youth and the voice of God. It encourages youth to realize that there are ways they can serve God as young people and not have to wait until they are adults. You may want to suggest it to your youth group to do.
- A-22 “Looking for the Child of Bethlehem” Christmas
This calls for men as well as women and 1 child, and a small group of carolers. There are 9 speaking parts and 6 or more non-speaking. The son of the innkeeper at Bethlehem is trying to find out whether that Baby born in the stable really was the Messiah.

- A-23 “Day 39 and Counting...” Opportunities for Growth
 From Ascension, Waterloo IA. A contemporary conversation between Mrs. Noah (Martha) and God on day 39 of the flood. In a humorous vein, it presents change as a challenge and opportunity for growth if we meet it constructively. The skit is accompanied by unique devotions to make a full-scale program.
- A-24 “The Message of the Candles” Christmas
 A short worship program using a leader and 7 readers. It needs 7 candles and holders, 7 cardboard signs, a table, and a good-sized picture of Christ. The candle is a reminder of some Christian characteristics we need to cultivate with God’s help.
- A-25 “Food For Thought” Nursing Home or Senior Group Program
 Designed for 1 leader, additional readers helpful. Audience participation in singing and riddles. Uses stories, poems, riddles, devotional readings, and singing, all included in the script. Can easily be shortened to fit time frame available.
- A-26 “Christmas Candle Light” Advent Tea
 Ascension Lutheran Church, Waterloo IA. Carols and readings. Copies of readings are included.
- A-27 “The Three Mary’s” Monologues
 Reverent, moving, first-person accounts of three women who were very close to Jesus, depicting the great effect He had on their lives. Simple costuming, no props. Each character speaks alone. Memorizing more effective.
     Mary, mother of Jesus, written by Carol Sherman, Chippewa Falls WI
     Mary of Bethany, by Joy Wolfe (suggest singing at start and finish)
     Mary of Magdala, by Marge Thorson
- A-28 “Twelve Gifts of Grace” Blessings/Fashion Show
 A narrator reads poetry that recalls special blessings of God for each month of the year such as: new beginnings, love, saints, new birth, growth, family, freedom, God’s Word, wisdom, faith, God’s Word, wisdom, faith, God’s goodness, Jesus. Each blessing is portrayed in a decorated hat that is modeled for each month (perhaps other items could be substituted for hats). Each month also has an appropriate song that can be used solo or by the group. Narrator; 12 hats
- A-29 “Stir Up” Advent
 An unusual, rather short, Advent program based on the “Stir Up prayers” (collects) for the four Sundays in Advent. It calls for actually mixing up a fruit cake, each ingredient representing things that help us get ready for Christmas, recipe included. Leader, 4 readers, audience participation.
- A-30 “Shoes of Life for the Road of Life” Baby Shower
 By Orrine Kirchof, Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, Yuba City, CA. A program designed to welcome a new baby (or a group of them) to the fellowship of faith, and give a bit of a preview of the road ahead. Uses a narrator and 8 people to represent stages of growth symbolized by shoes. Could be adapted for other happy occasions.
- A-31 “Friends Are Flowers in the Garden of Life” Friendship Tea
 From Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, Yuba City CA. Program for a friendship tea which presupposes a speaker or other main program item. Supplementary materials are provided, such as Scripture promise garden, Bible plants puzzle, and poems.
- A-32 “The Lord’s Prayer” Christmas
 A Christmas candlelight service using a reader and 11 candles of prescribed colors (white, blue, green, purple, brown, yellow, silver, red, black, and orange). Audience sings a Christmas carol or other hymn at the lighting of each candle.

- A-33 “Fruit of the Spirit” Fruit of the Spirit
 A program based on John 15 and Galatians 5:22-23. It uses a narrator and 9 speakers, each of whom explains a specific fruit of the Spirit and attaches a grape cluster to a vine intertwined on a trellis or on a flannel graph. Each is interspersed with group singing of a hymn.
- A-34 “Always Open, Especially on Sunday” Commitment
 A woman’s conversation with her alter ego on the subject of commitment. It is probably most understandably portrayed by 2 people, one “Poz” (positive), the other “Neg” (negative). 2 other characters are needed: a Scripture reader and a TV or radio announcer. By Elaine Benson
- A-35 “Can You Hear Me?” Listening Effectively
 By Laura Long Stellhorn, Sandusky OH The author describes its purpose: “To help us listen understandingly to what a person is saying, regardless of the words used (or lack of them).” It is a situation-and-discussion format using a leader. It can be used for large or small groups, regular meetings, retreats, etc.
- A-36 “Peace” Litany for Peace
 By Virginia Thoreson This program gives us help to claim the peace of Christ for ourselves and to let it operate in our daily relationships. The dialogue is handled by 3 women. It culminates in a litany for peace.
- A-37 “Facing the Future with Faith” Senior Members
 Discussion program for senior citizens still living at home on topics important to over-50s: health, finances, living alone, anticipation of becoming less useful/burden to family, loss of memory and/or decision-making power, death, etc. Needs a well-prepared empathetic leader.
- A-38 “The Friendly Visitors” Sick & Shut-in Visitation Ministry
 Four characters demonstrate some do’s and do not’s of visiting sick and shut-ins. It concludes with an opportunity for the audience to share ideas and experiences and add to the profile a good “friendly visitor.”
- A-39 “Prayer, Puzzles, and Progress” Prayer
 By Leah Spenn A group discussion program designed to augment progress in prayer by facing some of the puzzling problems and questions that often slow us down.
- A-40 “Angels We Have Heard on High” Christmas
 Ascension Lutheran Church, Waterloo IA, by Mardell Lindberg – includes script on Angels; Angels named in the Bible, and Angels of Christmas – interspersed with appropriate carol.

- B-25 “Poems by Yutha Hoglund” Christian Life
 This is a collection of a number of Yutha’s poems. Some have general application to the Christian life, some are for specific seasons. Many could serve as discussion starters.
- B-26 “The Eleventh Maiden”
 Written by Kathy Peterson, Chippewa Falls WI A pantomime whose story uses the Parable of the Ten Virgins as its background. The story is read by a narrator while the pantomime is carried out by the following characters: Christaline, 5 Wise Maidens, 5 Foolish Maidens, Bridegroom, Jenna, Wagon Driver, Marta, Storekeeper, Helen. Its end thought is Mark 8:34-36: “Whoever wishes to save his life shall lose it; but whoever loses his life for My sake and the Gospel’s shall save it. For what does it profit to gain the whole world, and forfeit his soul?”
- B-27 “Body Parts” Body of Christ
 Written by Linnea Farrell, Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Davenport IA The eye, ear, right hand, feet, mouth, and left hand, after a little banter, come to the conclusion that each is important and necessary, and sing their thanks for being the body of Christ.
- B-28 “Poems by Cheryl Humphrey” Spiritual Growth
 Cheryl is the secretary at Hope Lutheran Church, Hampton VA. A wide variety of meters and rhyme schemes and a surprising twist of thought spark interest and offer quick nuggets of praise to God and gems of thought for spiritual growth. Many are based on specific Scripture passages. Many could serve as discussion starters.
- B-29 “The Good Samaritan” Devotions: The Good Samaritan
 Devotions based on the Bible parable. A leader reads the story of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37) a few verses at a time. The audience responds with a prayer at each paus that applies the parable to modern life. It closes with the group singing the meaning of the parable to the tune of “Kum Ba Yah.”
- B-30 Resources on Prayer Prayer
 4 short program items on prayer. “The Alphabet of Prayer” by Mrs. Melvin Prestrud; “The Lord’s Prayer for Missions”; “Talking with our Father” – a litany; “Like Leaven” by Elaine Rodning
- B-31 “Crosses in Your Walk of Life” Cross

 By Orrine Kirchhof, Yuba City CA Several audience-participation activities that could be used with a friendship tea program.

B-33 Potpourri of short program ideas

By Orrine Kirchhof, Yuba City CA

1. Christmas religious words set to the tune of “Jingle Bells”
2. “Only One Way to Heaven” – idea that can be developed into a discussion that emphasizes Jesus is the only way to Heaven
3. “We’re NOT Having a Sale Today” – idea for a tract, brochure, or outside church sign, emphasizing that Jesus is God’s free gift of salvation

B-34 “How to Lead an Activity Night”

Activity Night

A valuable outline and checklist for someone who will be in charge of an activity night for the congregation

B-35 Potpourri of Program Helps

Program Helps

Includes several Table Graces, litanies, scavenger hunts, etc. which can be helpful in program planning.

B-36 Love Kit

There is a good recipe for the use of eight items which could be included in a “baggie”, and used as an excellent banquet favor. Two interesting poems are included: “Love One Another” & “Recipe for Joy”.

B-37 Skit: “What Happens When We Pray for our Families”

Prayer/Families

Written by Stephanie Kleiner, Ascension Lutheran, Waterloo IA. 5 characters needed to portray the learning received from their study of the book by Evelyn Christenson. A ‘neat’ poem, Love is the Key is part of it.

B-38 “Keeping Our Hearts on God”

Written by Joy Staber who has written a series of articles on how we have evolved from a Christian nation to a nation away from God. Thought provoking!!

B-39 Mixers to Help Get Acquainted

Mixers

C. RETREAT BIBLE STUDIES (no leader's guide available)

C-1 "Here Am I, Lord, Send Me"

Written by Leah Spenn. Based on Isaiah 61:1-9. Raises six questions: What does it say? Who can say it? What does it involve? Who has said it? Who will say it? Will I?

C-2 "God Speaks to Me"

Written by Leah Spenn. Two parts: "In My Tensions, Worries, Fears" and "In My Joys, Successes, Prosperity"

C-3 "Ministry"

Written by Leah Spenn. Explores four questions: Who me? When? Where? How? And discusses ministry as: work (in/out of home), willing service, worship, walking Christ-like, witness.

C-4 "The Hidden Life"

Written by Leah Spenn. Based on Colossians 3. In three parts: The natural heart concealed in Christ, the sanctified heart revealed in Christ-like living; power for progress.

C-5 "Planting Your Spiritual Garden"

Written by Orrine Kirchhof, Yuba City CA. Sub-title: "To Know Christ and To Make Him Known" A Bible study starting with I John 2:3-4 but using many other passages of Scripture to discuss the theme under four headings: presence, promptness, purpose, privilege. The visuals may be duplicated and given out, or used as illustrative posters.

C-6 "The Christian Woman Today"

Written by Theresa Anderson, Duluth MN. Explores the subject under five questions: Who is she? What does she do? When does she do her mission? Where does she do her work? How does she accomplish her mission? Worksheet and leader's helps are combined. Leader would need to prepare a separate worksheet.

C-7 "A Plan for Prayer"

Written by Cathy Twito, Ascension, Waterloo IA. Includes letter: To My Dear Child from Your Heavenly Father. Prayer can follow the acronym ACTS: A-Adoration; C-Confession; T-Thanksgiving; and S-Supplication. Helpful Bible references are given, as well as song sheet, program, and table favor. This was used at a Prayer Breakfast during the Lenten Season.

F. BIBLE TEACHING GAMES

F-1 “I Believe” ***

A series of 13 games to make the Apostle’s Creed more meaningful and dynamic for grade school children. Titles of the games are: Walk of Faith, Creation Hunt, Nativity, Good Friday, Jesus, The Empty Tomb, Ascension, The Balance, The Holy Shower, The Vine and the Branches, The Banquet Table, The Airmail Package, and The Narrow Gate. Specific instructions are given and diagrams included as needed.

F-2 “The Parable Game” ***

Purpose of the game is to teach with visual aids Jesus’ real meaning in the parables He told. Four rooms or areas are needed: banquet room, game room, demonstrations, and the parable theater. Each player receives a parable book with action instructions, a pencil, necklace, and 3 pieces of candy. Volunteers are necessary to help players as needed, and in some character roles.

F-3 “Minister Golf” ***

Intended to help players learn Bible stories, the way of salvation, and Christian virtues. A take-off on miniature golf.

* Note: The Games: I Believe, The Parable Game, and Minister Golf are inspired creations of Kathy Peterson, Chippewa Falls, WI. The games are clearly and painstakingly illustrated. They involve considerable time and effort from adults to prepare and present, but are a fun way to reinforce previous learning and are well worth the effort.
