Discussion Questions

1. When in your life would you point to as a "season of orientation" or a formative time in your Christian walk when everything seemed "black and white" and there was enjoyable predictability? (Like Psalm 1)
2. When was a time when you experienced a "season of disorientation" in your Christian life? A time when you were not so sure what God was up to. . . or a time of pain or doubt? (Like Psalm 88)
