

There are three kinds of people that come passing through in your life:

1. The beater-uppers. (v. 30)

“What’s yours is mine, I’ll take it if I can.”

2. The passer-uppers. (v. 31-32)

“What’s mine is mine, I’ll keep it if I can.”

The chief enemy of kindness is busyness.

The Great Sin -

Not that they robbed the man.

It is that they did nothing.

3. The picker-uppers. (v. 33-35)

“What’s mine is yours, you can have it if you need it.”
