

Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

Job 13:15

“Though He slay me, I will hope in Him.
Nevertheless I will argue my ways before Him.”

Job 13:15

...But the question underneath is...
is God enough for our troubles?

Three questions to reflect upon in times of trouble:

1. Can God be trusted when you are submerged in suffering? (1:13-19; 2:4; 4:7)

Lost his finances and material possessions

Lost his family

Lost fitness and health

Lost face

His faith didn't get him out of suffering...
but it helped him endure suffering.

Faith accepts what God gives...

Not what you want.

2. Can God be trusted when you are forsaken by close friends? (Ch. 19;
2:9-10)

3. Can you trust God when you are dismayed by darkness? (23:8-9)

Remember...

Job has not read the book of Job!

3. Takeaways:

1. Trust his sovereignty, not your own. (38:1-6; 40:1-2)

2. Learn to be satisfied with his presence. (42:1-6)

3. Trust in the supplying God who provides. (42:10-13)
