Hidden Message

Message: Jesus died as a substitute in the place of sinners.

Page 184

Tiles Answer: Jesus is the lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world (John 1:29) and Hsi people's Passover lamb (1 Cor 5:7).

Questions:

To be unblemished is to be without any flaw.

Atonement is paying the ransom price for sin and washing sins away to make peace between God and man. Like the Passover lamb, Jesus lived with those He came to die for (John 1:14). He was slaughtered at the same time as the Passover lambs (Luke 23:44). His blood causes God's wrath to pass over His people forever (Rom 5:9). He is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world (John 1:29).
