Wisdom From Obscurity: A Study of Lesser-Known Figures in Scripture

Are you seeking to be a person of significance or a person of prominence? While the world esteems prominence, God values significance. In the world, the prominent person is the one with ability, wealth, attractiveness, and influence. In God's economy the significant person is the one who is faithful, holy, and genuinely humble. In "Wisdom From Obscurity" we'll draw important lessons about what pleases God by studying the lives of some less well-known people in Scripture like Cain, Esau, Samuel, Abigail and others. This class is taught by Alan Lenz and meets in the Choir Room.
