

Lesson 3

Questions about Premillennialism

1. All Premillennialists believe that Jesus Christ will return before establishing his Kingdom. How will that return be different from the first time he came to earth?
 - a. Provide two examples of how the world would change immediately.
 - b. Provide one example of what would be different 100 years into his rule.
 - c. Imagine one argument the Devil might use to turn people against Jesus Christ at the end of the Millennium.
2. The Millennium will be a time of global peace, justice, and rest. Why would anyone rebel against Jesus at the end of the thousand years? What could Satan appeal to in order to rally such a huge army?
3. How does your understanding of the Millennium inform the way you view the following stewardships. Could a person determine your eschatology by observing:
 - a. How you spend your time
 - b. How you spend/invest your money
 - c. How you spread the gospel
