

READING GUIDE

Ezra's Example

Pray

Preparation

Thank God for speaking to us and revealing himself in his Word (2 Timothy 3:16, Heb 4:12). Ask God to help you understand so that you might know him and make him known!

- What sort of writing is this? (Historical/Narrative, Sermon/Letter, Poem/Song, Prophetic/Apocalyptic)
- What is the context or circumstance surrounding your reading? (Time period, Author, Addressee)

Read

Observation

What does it say?

- What sticks out and surprises you in this text?
- What repetition, key words, commands, characters, or climax did you observe?
- What's the main focus and emphasis of the text?

Study

Interpretation

What did it mean for them?

- What did you learn about God and the Gospel?
- What did you learn about yourself and the world?
- What questions do you have?

Do

Application

What does it mean for you?

- How might you sum up your reading in your own words?
- What wrong beliefs and actions do you need to repent and confess?
- What do you need to believe and do in response to God's Word?

Teach

Multiplication

What does it mean for others?

- What can you share with another Christian to encourage them to follow Christ?
- What can you share with a Non-Christian so they might consider following Christ?

September-December 2023

Join us for our 2023 reading plan!

There are 3 columns/tracks of reading. If you read all three this year, you'll read the entire Bible. Consider: what level of reading and study would be best for me in this season? However God leads, let's read together!

Multiple chapters/day? (LEFT) You'll read all of the historical and prophetic books of the Old Testament, with the whole of story of God's people, Israel, leading up to the promised Messiah.

One chapter/day? (CENTER) You'll read all of the wisdom from the Old and New Testaments, including the Psalms, Proverbs, and all of the letters written to the early church.

One passage/day? (RIGHT) You'll read each of the four of the gospels slowly, plus Acts and Revelation, focusing on Jesus and his apostles.
