Song of Gathering

I Sing the Mighty Pow'r of God

Words: Isaac Watts, 1715; Music: Ellacombe arr. by William H. Monk, 1868

I sing the mighty pow'r of God, that made the mountains rise,
That spread the flowing seas abroad, and built the lofty skies.
I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at His command, and all the stars obey.

I sing the goodness of the Lord, who filled the earth with food, He formed the creatures with his Word, and then pronounced them good. Lord, how your wonders are displayed, where'er I turn my eye, if I survey the ground I tread, or gaze upon the sky!

There's not a plant or flow'r below, but makes your glories known, And clouds arise, and tempests blow, by order from your throne; while all that borrows life from you is ever in your care;
And everywhere that we can be, You, God, are present there.

Man of Sorrows! What a Name

Words and Music: Philip P. Bliss, 1875.

Man of Sorrows! what a name for the Son of God, who came,
Ruined sinners to reclaim: Hallelujah! what a Savior!

Guilty, vile, and helpless, we; spotless Lamb of God was he;
Full atonement! can it be? Hallelujah! what a Savior!

Bearing shame and scoffing rude, in my place condemned he stood, sealed my pardon with his blood: Hallelujah! what a Savior!

Lifted up was he to die, "It is finished!" was his cry:
now in heav'n exalted high: Hallelujah! what a Savior!

When he comes, our glorious King, all his ransomed home to bring,
then anew this song we'll sing: Hallelujah! what a Savior!

Confession of Sin

Gracious heavenly Father, the Giver and Author of life, you have loved us with an everlasting love, but we have gone astray, rejecting your will for our lives. In humility, we admit that we are sinners in need of your grace. Instead of seeking the inner peace of your presence, we have given in to our fears and temptations. Forgive us, Lord, for being impatient and failing to turn our hearts toward you. Grant us the courage to trust you as you guide us through life. For the sake of your Son who died for us, forgive us, cleanse us, and create in us the desire to live every moment for you, and to please you in every way. We pray these things in the Name of our precious Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Confession of Faith

(from 2 Peter 1)

We believe that God's divine power has given us everything we need for life and for godly living, that we may bring glory to God in all we do. We believe God has given us his precious and very great promises, so that through them we may imitate God's holiness, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. Because of this, we must make every effort to supplement our faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. We trust that as we grow in these graces, we will be effective and fruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, and we will confirm our calling and election. In this way, we can be assured that we bear the fruit of true salvation by grace, and we may rightly anticipate a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Pastoral Prayer

Come, Thou Almighty King

Words: Anonymous, ca. 1757; Music: Felce de Giardini, 1769

Come, thou Almighty King, help us thy name to sing, help us to praise.
Father, all glorious, o'er all victorious, come, and reign over us, Ancient of Days.
Come, thou Incarnate Word, gird on thy mighty sword, our prayer attend.
Come, and thy people bless, and give thy Word success; Spirit of holiness, on us descend.
Come, Holy Comforter, thy sacred witness bear in this glad hour.
Thou who almighty art, now rule in every heart, and ne'er from us depart, Spirit of pow'r.

Doxology

Come, Thou Almighty King

To the great One in Three eternal praises be, hence evermore.
His sovereign majesty may we in glory see, and to eternity love and adore.

Salvation belongs to our God, who sits upon the throne and unto the Lamb
Praise and glory, wisdom and thanks, honor and power and strength

Chorus:

Be to our God forever and ever, be to our God forever and ever
Be to our God forever and ever, Amen.

And we the redeemed shall be strong In purpose and unity
Declaring aloud Praise and glory, wisdom and thanks, honor and power and strength (Chorus)

Song of Response

Holy, Holy, Holy

Words: Reginal Heber, 1783-1826; Music: John B. Dykes, 1861

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty! Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;
Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty! God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!

Holy, Holy, Holy, all the saints adore thee, Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee, Who wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

Holy, holy, holy! Though the darkness hide Thee, though the eye of sinful man thy glory may not see;
Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee, perfect in pow'r, in love, and purity.

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty! All Thy works shall praise Thy name in earth and sky and sea;
Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty! God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!

Benediction
