Call to Worship

Pastor Kevin Witten

Psalm 111:7-10

Leader: The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy;

People: They are established forever and ever, to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.

Leader: He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever. Holy and awesome is his name!

People: The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding. His praise endures forever!

Repenting of Our Sin

God's Word Examines Our Hearts

Confessing Our Sins

Loving God, thank you for your mercy toward us. May we be a people who know that we are sinners profoundly loved and accepted in Christ. We confess to you our partiality toward those we approve of, and our lack of love for others. Show us the subtlety of our sin. Show us our hidden faults. Cause us to pursue your call to love our neighbor as ourselves. May the love you have for us cause us to obey and glorify you as we speak and act according to your law of liberty. Renew us in the wonderful hope of your mercy that triumphs over judgment. In Jesus' name, Amen.

About the Lord's Supper at Trinity

The Lord's Supper, also called Communion, is a time for Christians to meet with the Savior to be strengthened in our faith. We invite those who are baptized members of an evangelical church to participate. As part of our worship service, we come forward to the table by using the center aisles. Take one of the double stacked cups that contain bread on the bottom and grape juice on the top. Return to your seat using the outside aisles and join in singing. Children who have not yet publicly professed their faith in Christ should refrain from participating in communion. Trinity has resources to help assist you in the process of your child becoming a communing member and participating in communion. Gluten free communion bread is labeled and located in the center tray on the table. This also serves as our offering time. Offering plates are located up front. We ask that you give as the Lord leads you to help support Trinity's mission locally and globally. Our giving comes from an understanding that God has blessed us generously in Christ.
