Trinity Presbyterian Church welcomes all baptized Christians who are willing to forsake their sins and trust in Christ for salvation, and who are members in good standing of a congregation that proclaims the gospel, to receive Holy Communion with us. Baptized covenant children who have not made profession of faith before the elders should abstain from receiving communion until they are received as communing members by the session. TPC serves wine and grape juice for communion. The clear cups contain wine and the purple cups contain grape juice. Gluten free communion bread is in the dish in the serving basket.

This is not a membership class but is required should you be led to join Trinity. Please sign up at the Welcome Center in the narthex or check the insert in your bulletin.

Adult Class: In this class, we are looking at the book, You Are What You Love by James K.A. Smith. We will explore what it means to be a Christian disciple as it relates to a total life transformation through worship and liturgy. Our goal is to gain a better understanding of how belief is embodied in us primarily through our habits of desire, and that God himself is the true satisfaction of our hungry hearts.

Women's CE: This will be an eleven-week discussion of the life of Joseph led by Stephanie Cardel and based on Wallace Tinsley Jr's book, Studies in the Life of Joseph: A View From the Top.

Women's Bible study - John Stott's study, Acts: Seeing the Spirit at Work will be the basis for lessons in this year's study of the book of Acts at the Women's Thursday Morning Bible study beginning Sept. 5. This statement from the back cover of the book states, "Covering the exciting action of the Spirit in the years just following Jesus' life on earth, this study will open your eyes to the Spirit's power in the past and present and help you apply the riches of Scripture to your own life."
