A Scripture Guide for Praying ‘ The Lord’s Prayer ’.....	34-35

INTRODUCTION

The Goal of this prayer guide is that it may be used by the Spirit of God to form our local body more and more into the image of Christ as we seek the Father in prayer and give ourselves to his Word.

In Christ we are God's children and by the Spirit we are enabled to cry out, "Abba! Father!" Yet even then, prayer does not come easy to the Christian. We struggle to pour out our hearts because so often we do not have the words. Hence, this prayer guide is filled with prayerful words that come directly from God's Word. It is the hope of the Session that as we listen to and speak God's Written Word, his Eternal Word, the Lord Jesus, will shape, not only our words to him, but also our very lives in His image. So take up this prayer guide individually or as a family (see A Note to Families in the How to Use This Guide section on page 6) and use it to lead you to God's throne of grace where there is sufficient help in time of need.

Why a Daily Prayer Guide?

God loves rhythm. The same sun rises and sets each day. The same four seasons come and go every year. Yet within this rhythm, we do not experience the same old routine. Rather we find the wonder and beauty of God's creativity that orders all he has made. And the same is true for us. God's children thrive, not as much in unprompted spontaneity, but in the ordinary rhythms and seasons of life. Historically, this truth has been central to the spiritual formation of God's people. It was seen in the holy seasons of Israel, in the daily prayers of the Psalmists and earliest Christians, and most importantly, in the gatherings of God's people on the Lord's Day. This prayer guide then, is meant to help us attune our lives to the God-given rhythms of daily prayer. God wants not only our hearts, but also our days and our calendars. This is the reason the early church saw fit to shape their days and years by the remembrance of Christ – his arrival (Advent), his birth (Christmas), his manifestation to the world (Epiphany), his cross (Lent), his Resurrection (Easter), and his gift of the Spirit (Pentecost).

Why a Prayer Guide?

A prayer guide is not meant to squelch our freedom in prayer. On the contrary, it is meant to give us words to start our prayers that those words might become our own. The best way we learn to pray is by being immersed in the biblical language of prayer – speaking these prayers again and again with our lips until what we pray flows directly from our hearts and, in turn, shapes our lives. So how can this prayer guide help?

1. It encourages us to pray daily and intentionally, giving us words to pray, so that we can start praying immediately without spending undue time wondering where to begin.
2. It shows us how to pray Scripturally, specifically to pray the Psalms (The Prayer Book of the Christian) and the prayers of the Apostle Paul.
3. It helps us to pray together. During the week, while we are scattered we can still pray together as we commit to use this guide as a way to shape our 'common' daily prayers. Using this guide serves as a reminder that we belong to a particular community called to seek the one Lord who loved us and gave himself for us on the cross.

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

This Pentecost Season Prayer Guide is intentionally set up to be repetitive. There are six days of Morning, Midday, and Evening prayers for Monday through Saturday (There are no suggested prayers on Sundays because Lord's Day worship is our corporate prayer service, and we encourage you to use the 'Order of Service' for your personal prayers on that day). This repetition is not meant to stifle your prayers, but to lead you into prayer. In addition, the repetition will produce familiarity, possibly even memorization of certain psalms, prayers, and passages of Scripture. The only thing that will not be repetitive are the daily readings in Joshua, Acts, and James. It is our hope that throughout the Season of Pentecost our entire congregation will read through these books as we use this prayer guide. Below is the general outline of the daily prayers for morning and evening with some helpful suggestions on how to use each particular section.

Call to Prayer: Morning & Evening

This is meant to remind us that it is God who first seeks us and calls us to prayerfully seek him. Each day includes a call to prayer from a psalm. Regard these words as God's personal call to you to pour out your heart to him in prayer.

Prayers of Praise and Thanksgiving: Morning

Psalm 5 says, "O LORD, in the morning you hear my voice; in the morning I direct my prayer to you and watch." Each new day is a gift from God, so use this time to thank him for seeing you through the night and giving you a new day; praying that he would bless and keep you throughout the day.

Confession of Sin, Personal Confession, Song of Confession, and Assurance of Pardon and Comfort: Night

The evening is a great time to reflect on the previous day. In so doing, we will be aware of the particular ways we sinned against our God – ways we did not trust him or betrayed him, and ways we hurt or harmed ourselves and others. In this section of the prayer guide, we have provided a general confession of sin from the Psalms and a time of personal confession. After this, there is a song of confession meant to deepen you in your need for God's good mercy. Finally, once you've confessed your sins there is a pointed reminder that for all who look to Jesus in repentance there is always forgiveness.

Readings & Time of Silence

This portion of the prayer guide includes a reading from the Psalms. Since these will be repetitive throughout the week, seek to memorize them, and use them as a way to shape your approach to God in prayer. This portion also includes a reading from Joshua, Acts, or James. Read these passages slowly and intentionally. You may even want to take notes. After reading the selected Scriptures, there is a time of silence. Use this time to prayerfully reflect on what you just read.

Confession of Faith: Morning

Morning is a good time to confess what we believe and to whom we belong as followers of Christ. For this reason, this prayer guide includes daily confessions of faith taken directly from Scripture. These confessions focus on the gospel, our union with Christ, and his calling upon our lives.

Prayers of Intercession: Morning and Evening

Use this time to pray for yourself, your family and friends, and for your church family. This portion of the prayer guide also includes suggestions for other prayers of intercession that include such things as praying for the leadership of TPC and our mission partners.

The Lord's Prayer: Morning and Evening

Throughout Church history, God's people have prayed the prayer Jesus taught us to pray. Therefore, know when you pray this prayer you're joining your voice with the voice of the Church throughout space and time. Also, when we pray this prayer know that we are entering more deeply into Jesus' School of Prayer (see appendix for further aid in praying the Lord's Prayer.)

Closing Prayer: Morning and Evening

These prayers are taken from the Apostle Paul's prayers for his churches. You will pray the same prayer in the morning and evening. It is our hope that Paul's prayers will teach us to pray to our good and gracious Father in the name of his Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Morning Song

These songs are intended to highlight the meaning of the Season. In the appendix, you will find the words for the selected songs for each morning. Sheet music for the songs can be found in the Season of Pentecost section of the TPC website.

The Blessing: Morning

Think of this portion of the prayer guide as the Lord's benediction over you and the day at hand. Each day it will be the same blessing taken from Numbers 6, the great Aaronic Blessing.

The Song of Simeon: Evening

This passage of Scripture has been traditionally said/prayed at the end of the day. It reminds us that our God has, in particular ways, shown us his salvation in Christ and, because he has, we can lie down in peace knowing that we are safe and secure in our Father's hands.

A Note to Families

This prayer guide can be a great tool for times of family worship. We suggest that those who are able take turns reading each portion (Scripture readings, prayers, etc.). If your kids aren't able to read yet, you could read a line and have them repeat - for example, "Make a joyful noise to the LORD all the earth!" (repeat) "Serve the LORD with gladness!" (repeat), etc. This ensures that everyone is involved in both hearing and speaking the Word of God with one another. During the Prayers of Praise and Thanksgiving and the Prayers of Intercession, you may each say something aloud, no matter how long or short. During the Personal Confession, you can take this opportunity to model confession of sin to one another. In this way, your kids actually see what it means to confess sins and forgive one another. These are just a few ways to use the guide as a family. We encourage you to explore how it might best help your own worship and devotion in your life together.

We trust this prayer guide will be a great blessing to you and our congregation, and that through it we will all grow in our relationship with the Father through the Son and by the Spirit.

If we have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Confession of Faith from Colossians 1:15-20

Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities - all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

Confession of Sin: Psalm 51:3-5

For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what was evil in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment. Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me.

Time of Silence

(use this time to reflect on the Scripture passages you just read)

Confession of Faith from Philippians 2:6-11

Our Lord Jesus, although he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Prayers of Intercession for the Day

(In addition to your other prayers, especially ask the Lord to prepare his people for corporate worship and that his name would be praised and his word would accomplish his work in the lives of his people.)

Closing Prayer from 1 Thessalonians 3:11-13

May the Lord Jesus make us increase and abound in love for one another and for all, so that he may establish our hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

Morning Songs

Come Thou Fount

Come, thou fount of ev'ry blessing,
tune my heart to sing thy grace;
streams of mercy, never ceasing,
call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet,
sung by flaming tongues above;
praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it,
mount of God's unchanging love.

Here I raise my Ebenezer;
hither by thy help I'm come;
and I hope, by thy good pleasure,
safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
wand'ring from the fold of God:
he, to rescue me from danger,
interposed his precious blood.

O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be;
let that grace now, like a fetter,
bind my wand'ring heart to thee.
Prone to wander—Lord, I feel it—prone to leave the God I love:
here's my heart, O take and seal it,
seal it for thy courts above.

Words by Robert Robinson (1758).

My Heart Is Filled with Thankfulness

My heart is filled with thankfulness to Him who bore my pain;
who plumbed the depths of my disgrace and gave me life again.
Who crushed my curse of sinfulness and clothed me in His light and wrote His law of righteousness with pow'r upon my heart.

My heart is filled with thankfulness to Him who walks beside;
who floods my weaknesses with strength and causes fears to fly.
Whose every promise is enough for every step I take;
sustaining me with arms of love and crowning me with grace.

My heart is filled with thankfulness to Him who reigns above;
whose wisdom is my perfect peace, whose every thought is love.
For every day I have on earth is given by the King.
So I will give my life, my all, to love and follow Him.

Holy Spirit, Living Breath of God

Holy Spirit, living Breath of God, breathe new life into my willing soul;
Bring the presence of the Risen Lord, to renew my heart and make me whole.
Cause Your Word to come alive in me; give me faith for what I cannot see.
Give me passion for Your purity; Holy Spirit breathe new life in me.

Holy Spirit, come abide within; may Your joy be seen in all I do.
Love enough to cover every sin in each thought and deed and attitude.
Kindness to the greatest and the least; gentleness that sows the path of peace.
Turn my striving into works of grace; Breath of God, show Christ in all I do.

Holy Spirit, from creation's birth, giving life to all that God has made.
Show Your power once again on Earth, cause Your church to hunger for Your ways.
Let the fragrance of our prayers arise; lead us on the road of sacrifice, that in unity the face of Christ will be clear for all the world to see.

Morning Songs

Take My Life and Let It Be

Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee.
Take my moments and my days;
let them flow in ceaseless praise,
let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my hands, and let them move
at the impulse of thy love.
Take my feet, and let them be
swift and beautiful for thee,
swift and beautiful for thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing,
always, only, for my King.
Take my lips, and let them be filled with messages from thee,
filled with messages from thee.

Take my silver and my gold;
not a mite would I withhold.
Take my intellect, and use
ev'ry pow'r as thou shalt choose,
ev'ry pow'r as thou shalt choose.

Take my will, and make it thine;
it shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart, it is thine own;
it shall be thy royal throne,
it shall be thy royal throne.

Take my love; my Lord, I pour at thy feet its treasure-store.
Take my self, and I will be
ever, only, all for thee,
ever, only, all for thee.

Words by Frances R. Havergal (1874).
Music by Henri A. César Malan (1827).

My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less

My hope is built on nothing less than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
but wholly lean on Jesus' name.

REFRAIN:

On Christ, the solid rock, I stand;
all other ground is sinking sand,
all other ground is sinking sand.

When darkness veils his lovely face,
I rest on his unchanging grace.
In every high and stormy gale,
my anchor holds within the veil.

REFRAIN

His Oath, his covenant, his blood support me in the whelming flood.
When all around my soul gives way,
he then is all my hope and stay.

REFRAIN

When he shall come with trumpet sound,
O may I then in him be found;
dressed in his righteousness alone,
faultless to stand before the throne.

Morning Songs

We Are God's People

We are God's people, the chosen of the Lord,
born of his Spirit, established by his Word;
our cornerstone is Christ alone, and strong in him we stand:
O let us live transparently, and walk heart to heart and hand in hand.

We are God's loved ones, the Bride of Christ our Lord,
for we have known it, the love of God outpoured;
now let us learn how to return the gift of love once given:
O let us share each joy and care, and live with a zeal that pleases Heaven.

We are the Body of which the Lord is Head, called to obey him, now risen from the dead;
he wills us be a family, diverse yet truly one;
O let us give our gifts to God, and so shall his work on earth be done.

We are a temple, the Spirit's dwelling place, formed in great weakness, a cup to hold God's grace;
we die alone, for on its own each ember loses fire:
yet joined in one the flame burns on to give warmth and light, and to inspire.

A Scripture Guide for Praying the Lord's Prayer

Adapted from the Westminster Larger Catechism and based on the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven - Let us rejoice that we are children of God, that we may draw near to God as our loving Father and beseech Him on behalf of ourselves and others, knowing that all are in absolute dependence upon His sovereign care.

See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. (1 John 3:1)

...having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints... (Ephesians 1:18)

And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!" (Galatians 4:6)

For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen. (Romans 11:36)

Hallowed be thy name - Let us respect our Father as we call upon Him, having hearts which yearn to glorify Him in our thoughts, words, and actions.

but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, "You shall be holy, for I am holy." (1 Peter 1:15-16)

...he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness. (Hebrews 12:10)

...so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him... (Colossians 1:10a)

Thy kingdom come - Let us pray that through the propagation of the gospel, all God's children (both Jew and Gentile) are brought into His church. Let us pray that Christ's church is sustained in society by civil governing authorities and nurtured by His Word and Spirit through faithful officers who purely dispense the ordinances of Christ. Let us pray for the hastening of Christ's return and our reigning with Him forever in a kingdom where death, sin, and Satan are destroyed.

I do not want you to be unaware of this mystery, brothers: a partial hardening has come upon Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. And in this way all Israel will be saved... (Romans 11:25-26)

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. (1 Timothy 2:1-2)

To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. (2 Thessalonians 1:11-12)

And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God. And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony... (Revelation 12:10-11)

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven - Let us pray that God's grace softens our hard hearts and makes us able and willing to know, do, and submit to His will in all things.

Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the LORD! (Psalm 119:1)

Blessed are those who keep his testimonies, who seek him with their whole heart, who also do no wrong, but walk in his ways! (Psalm 119:1-3)

I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. (Romans 12:1-2)

Give us this day our daily bread - Let us pray that God sustains our temporal needs as His Fatherly wisdom sees fit, and that we do not seek to use them unlawfully or place our dependence upon our own ingenuity in acquiring those blessings.

...do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. (Philippians 4:6)

You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions. (James 4:3)

But godliness with contentment is great gain, for we brought nothing into the world, and we cannot take anything out of the world. But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content. (1 Timothy 6:6-8)

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us - Let us pray for the grace of God's forgiveness, for ourselves and others, recognizing that all of us are sinners who owe a debt to God's justice we cannot pay. Only God, through the obedience and satisfaction of Christ, acquits us and accepts us in the Beloved. Let us pray that we are filled with God's peace and joy, knowing that He pardons our daily failings and gives us assurance of forgiveness evidenced in our willingness to forgive others.

Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God... for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God...(Romans 3:19, 23)

...and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. (Romans 3:24-25)

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. (Psalm 51:7)

And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers until he should pay all his debt. So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart." (Matthew 18:34-35)

Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil - Let us pray that God so overrules the sinfulness of our flesh and the power of the world and Satan that we are kept from being tempted to sin. Let us pray that when we are tempted, God powerfully enables us to stand in that time of temptation. Let us pray that when we do fall God raises us to recovery and uses our fall for our sanctification, that our salvation may be perfected. And let us pray for the day when we may be fully freed from sin and evil forever. For God's is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.

I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. (John 17:15)

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. (Psalm 51:10)

Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world. And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you. (1 Peter 5:8-10)
