

Camp Counselor

- Age: Rising High School Junior, Senior, or College Student
- Hours: 7:45am-4:30pm
- Salary: $300 per week

Reports to: Camp Director

Camp Counselors facilitate daytime camp activities. Camp Counselors are responsible for knowing the whereabouts of each camper assigned to them at all times during camp hours. Camp Counselors build relationships with children attending camp while planting seeds of spiritual truth in the lives of those in their care. Counselors connect with families and get to know parents. Camp Counselors model service and sacrifice while loving children from our community in a safe, fun environment.

Jr. Counselor

- Age: Rising High School Freshmen and Sophomores
- Hours: 7:45am-4:30pm
- Salary: $25 Gift Card per week

Reports to: Leadership Team

Junior Counselors are Counselors-In-Training. They assist Counselors in playing with, teaching, and supervising campers. Like Counselors, they model service and sacrifice while caring for campers. Working as a Junior Counselor gives students experience with campers that is invaluable when they become a Counselor. Junior Counselors must bring high energy and love having fun with kids.

Servant Team

- Age: Rising 6th-8th Grade Student
- Hours: 7:45am-3:30pm

Reports to: Servant Team Leader

Servant Team members are a HUGE part of camp. Made up of a group of rising 6th through 8th grade students, they help the leadership team counselors make sure that each camp day runs smoothly. As part of the Servant Team, you may be asked to step in as a “Jr. Counselor” to help watch over campers, or you may be asked to set up games and water day activities. Servant Team members serve tirelessly wherever needed.
