

1. what percent of your prayers would you estimate are focused on looking at, or for, the goodness, kindness, and grace of God?
2. What is the value of looking at the “severity” of God?
3. According to these verses (Heb 12:3-7; James 1:2-4), how might we experience the severity of God? Can you describe some experiences in your life that might fit either of those passages?
4. According to Rom 11:22 what is the value of believers “beholding” the severity of God?
5. In these times of difficulty, how are you challenged to walk closely with God? If circumstances got worse, what would be your plan to stay close to God?