Our Bible Reading Plan [2021-2022]

through the New Testament

This plan is designed for weekday readings (one chapter a day), with weekends set aside for review and reflection. Follow the plan and you will read all 260 chapters of the New Testament in one year. Sunday messages and discussions are also drawn from the prior week's readings. Some additional recommendations:

- ☉ Find a quiet place to read and use a journal/notebook to record thoughts, questions, praises and/or prayers.
- ☉ Pray before and after you read. Ask God, through his Spirit, to help you learn, live, and love his word.
- ☉ Ask good study questions: Who is the author? To whom is he writing? Why? Does the context (what comes before and after) provide clues? What are the key terms in this verse? Any repeated terms or phrases?
- ☉ How does this verse or passage point you to Jesus? If Jesus spoke these words directly to you, what would you take away?
- ☉ In light of your reading, what might God have you share with a fellow believer or an unbeliever in your life?
- ☉ If you miss a daily reading, fall back a day and use Saturday or Sunday to catch up.
