

"Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God." (Matthew 4:4)

YEAR _____

THREE-A-DAY

READINGS

Every day in God's Word and through the Bible in ONE YEAR.

EXODUS 13

Egypt, both the first-born of man and the first-born of cattle. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all the males that first open the womb; but all the first-born of my sons I redeem. 16 It shall be as a mark on your hand or frontlets between your eyes daily as a strong hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt.

17 When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was the way for God said, "Lest the people repent when they see war, and return to Egypt." God led the people round by the wilderness toward the Red Sea. The people of Israel went on out of the land of Egypt equipped for battle. The LORD took the bones of Joseph with him, as he said, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry my bones up out of the land of Egypt."

Three-a-Day Readings

Spiritual disciplines are a good thing. Paul reminded Timothy of this when he called him to “discipline yourself for godliness” (1 Timothy 4:7).

Of all the spiritual disciplines one could list, two are essential: the word and prayer. And of those, the first is the cornerstone. Reading, meditating on, and obeying God’s word is the foundation of living for God. Prayer is key, but we must first hear from God if we ever hope to speak to God in a way that leads to His glory and our good.

But is there such a thing as community disciplines? Whether we think about it this way or not, every Sunday we gather to practice certain disciplines together: praising God, encouraging one another, and hearing from His word.

But what if reading the Bible, together, became a shared discipline? How might this happen? How would it work? This calendar is an attempt to do that*. It marks out the path for us. It directs us in a journey that we will take together during the course of the year; a journey through what Paul called the “whole counsel of God” (Acts 20:27). Our goal is to read the whole Bible in one year by reading three chapters a day.

And we will support this community discipline by structuring our Growth Groups and discipleship/core groups around these readings. Wouldn’t it encourage you to know your brothers and sisters are reading the same chapters each day as you are? Wouldn’t it be a blessing to have vital relationships with other believers that are built around a shared journey through God’s word?

Some Practical Recommendations

As you join us on this journey, here are some practical suggestions to keep in mind:

- 1) Find a quiet place to read. You can read in the morning, or at night, or one chapter in the morning, one midday, and one in the evening. It doesn’t matter.
- 2) Keep a notebook or some scrap paper nearby and record thoughts and prayers God gives you through His word.
- 3) If a day has you feeling overwhelmed, and you’re tempted not to read at all, read what you can instead. Maybe that’s one or two chapters instead of three. Whatever the amount, the key is to be in God’s word (the very thing we need when we feel overwhelmed!).
- 4) If you miss a day, and you have time, go back and read the chapters you missed. If you feel like you don’t have the time, or you miss more than one day, then don’t give up because you feel overwhelmed. Just skip the chapters you missed and focus on the current day’s readings.
- 5) Pray! Ask God to help you learn, live, and love His word. Only the Spirit of God can enlighten and transform us through the word of God.

* This calendar is based on the reading schedule created by the Scottish pastor Robert Murray M’Cheyne (1813-1843). The original M’Cheyne’s calendar includes the fourth optional track which takes you through the New Testament and Psalms twice.

Threadlines

As we read through God's word, there are certain themes we want to look for and go deeper in, by God's grace. These key themes are like lines of thread running through a beautiful tapestry. As we follow them and see the intricacy and beauty of the weaving, the whole tapestry becomes that much more amazing! As we seek to live in light of our Four Essentials (as servants of One Lord, siblings in One Body, students of One Truth, and sent ones on One Mission), these themes should guide us! Consider these themes and watch for them as you read:

1. "No One Like You": The attributes and nature of our Triune (three-in-one) God.
2. "Your Word is Truth": The importance of hearing, handling, and heeding God's word.
3. "What is Man?": Human beings, created by God, but corrupted by sin.
4. "So Great a Salvation": God's plan and power to save us through Jesus.
5. "Delight Yourself in the Lord": What it means to walk with God and worship Him.
6. "You Shall Be My People": The people God is forming and their life together.
7. "Just as Christ": To be holy is to live for and live like Jesus Christ.
8. "Enemies under His Feet": The reality and strategies of the world, the flesh, and the Devil.
9. "Through Many Tribulations": Facing suffering according to the power and purposes of God.
10. "Until I Come": The work God is doing through the church and its fulfillment.

God's word has something for each of us, each day. It doesn't matter how much we think we know or don't know. The comments of the early church leader Augustine in reference to the Gospel of John are applicable to all of Scripture: God's word "is deep enough for an elephant to swim and shallow enough for a child not to drown."

Remember what Paul Bunyan (author of The Pilgrim's Progress) wrote inside his Bible: "This book will keep you from sin, or sin will keep you from this book."

May God bless our journey together as we demonstrate, as a people, that we believe the words Jesus spoke as He quoted the Old Testament: "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God." (Matthew 4:4)

Pursuing Him with you,
