

DAILY PRAYER

This day-by-day prayer suggestion comes from Annette Christensen and her family:

“I wanted to share how our family prayed corporately each day when our children were younger. The focus is not exclusive of urgent needs, such as illness, etc., it just ensures that each of these areas are focused on in our prayers at least once a week. It could easily be adjusted for your family. We just found that the acrostic nature makes it easier to remember for little ones.

“We adopted this schedule after our family prayer time became rather rote and never seemed to quite address everything we wanted it to. The schedule may seem artificial at first, but it is very liberating after a time when you know that you are praying fully each week with your family—you can spend the whole time praying for missionaries and feel great about it because you know that tomorrow is something else to pray thoroughly for!”

Sunday — Saints

Pray for our church, people in our church family, our pastors, elders, deacons, and leaders.

Monday — Missionaries

Pray for the missionaries our church supports and for mission opportunities in your neighborhood.

Tuesday — Thanksgiving

Praise God for His many blessings in our lives.

Wednesday — World

Pray for our national, state, and local leaders. For God’s protection of them for God to give them His wisdom. Pray also for world leaders.

Thursday—Things we need to do

Pray that God would guide and bless our daily work.

Friday — Friends & Family

Pray for your friends and family, near and far, who have specific needs, knowing in confidence that God hears our prayers and answers.

Saturday—Salvation

Pray for those who don’t have a relationship with Jesus yet, that God would soften their hearts and that He would use us to introduce them to Him.
