

Red Letter Life

Week 6

TALK IT OVER

Key Scriptures:

“But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it”.

Matthew 7:14

“A person marked by grace should also be a person marked by obedience to the will of the Father”.
~@J_Gildehaus ~

Thoughts you have from listening to the message:

Start celebrating. Revisit action item(s) from last week.

- Wrap up any discussion from last week.

Icebreaker

- Talk about the way have used the idea of Christians not judging.

Start sharing. Choose questions that create openness.

- Read Matthew 7:13-14
- What about following Jesus makes the path and the gate narrow?
- Why do you think so many people only chose the wide and broad path?
- Read Matthew 7:15-20
- Why is it such a challenge to sometimes spot a false teacher?
- What is so dangerous about false teachers?
- Read Matthew 7:21-23
- Why does Jesus tell some people that he didn't know them?
- What is it that marks a true disciple of Jesus?
- Why is it important to understand that grace is what saves us and not what we do?
- Read Matthew 7:24-27
- What are some of the things we can do to build our faith on solid ground?

Start praying. Be bold and pray specifically.

Father help us to pay special attention to words of your son Jesus. We know he has come to give us a different kind of life. Help us to understand the warnings Jesus gives and the reason we need to listen to those warnings. Amen.
