

Food for Thought
For the week following February 9, 2020

1. Have you ever identified your Spiritual Gifts before? If so, how do they compare to your current results? What do you learn from this comparison?

2. Have you ever experienced any other self-discovery surveys (e.g., Myers-Briggs inventory, DISC, other?). What did you learn about yourself through these other tools?

3. Read 1 Corinthians 12. How would you summarize this passage in your own words? What is your biggest takeaway from this chapter?

4. Make a list of all the people you routinely hang out with. As you go through these inventories, be thinking about what your friends' gifts, talents, abilities, and experiences might be and record your thoughts. Share those thoughts with your friends and encourage them to act on and develop their gifts. (You may have just found a partner in ministry).

"The 'How" of Spiritual Gifts"

Jon Sims
February 9, 2020

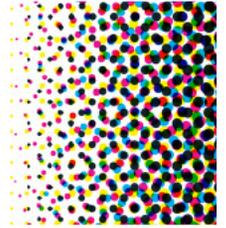

Food for Thought
For the week following February 9, 2020

1. Have you ever identified your Spiritual Gifts before? If so, how do they compare to your current results? What do you learn from this comparison?

2. Have you ever experienced any other self-discovery surveys (e.g., Myers-Briggs inventory, DISC, other?). What did you learn about yourself through these other tools?

3. Read 1 Corinthians 12. How would you summarize this passage in your own words? What is your biggest takeaway from this chapter?

4. Make a list of all the people you routinely hang out with. As you go through these inventories, be thinking about what your friends' gifts, talents, abilities, and experiences might be and record your thoughts. Share those thoughts with your friends and encourage them to act on and develop their gifts. (You may have just found a partner in ministry).

"The 'How" of Spiritual Gifts"

Jon Sims
February 9, 2020