

Food for Thought
For the week following April 12, 2020

1. Why do you think the women are the first to discover the empty tomb? (Shouldn't the Disciples have been the ones in the know?)

2. What were the angel's instructions, and why didn't he relay them directly to the Disciples?

3. What emotions did the women have to deal with during this experience? What emotions do you experience at the thought of an empty tomb?

4. Is today's scripture an ending to a story, or a beginning? Make a case for both possibilities and discuss with a friend!

5. What is different about the way you live your life as a result of the empty tomb?

"Is It Finished?"
Matthew 28:1-8

Bill Hogan
April 12, 2020