Food for Thought

For the week following September 6, 2020

1. Israel was enslaved by Egypt for a long time. Why does God pick this particular time to respond to their cries for help?

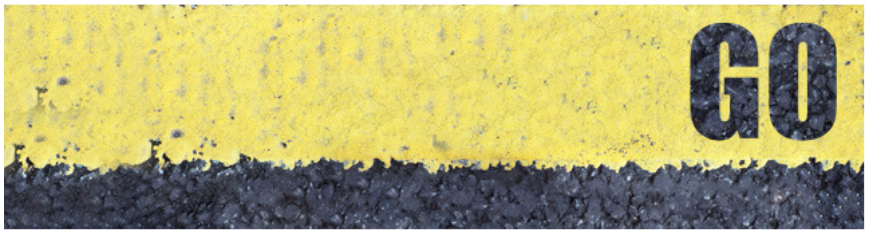
2. Who would you pick to lead the Israelites out of Egypt? (e.g., what personality traits, experience, abilities, etc.)/. Why would the traits you selected be important in this case?

3. Moses asks, "Who am I to appear before Pharaoh and lead the people out of Egypt?" How would you answer him to encourage and inspire him?

   —How did God answer Moses in order to encourage and inspire him?

   —Look at the difference between your answer and God's answer. What does this tell us about God? About us?

4. What's your "Who Me?" moment? Where is God calling you today to a place or role that you don't think you're qualified for? How might today's scripture affect your situation?



"Who Me?"
Exodus 3:5-12
