Ad Te Levavi—First Sunday in Advent

December 1, 2013

The Lord Who Comes

In this place Our Lord Jesus comes both for us and to live within us. But most of all He comes to save us and deliver us from whatever threatens us. May you also greet Him joyfully and join Him as He comes for you in His Word and Supper.

The Theme of Today's Liturgy

While the world prepares for parties and presents, the Church prepares for the coming of Her Lord by the lifting up of the souls of the faithful unto Him (Introit). For your salvation is near (Epistle) as our Savior comes in poverty and humility (Gospel). He comes to forgive your sin and save your life (Old Testament). So we pray that Christ would stir up His power and come (Collect), as we await Him in true faith (Gradual).

The Sermon

Blessed is He who comes in the Name of the Lord! Blessed indeed, for He is from of old, without beginning or end yet begotten. Through Him all things were made. He entered His creation through the womb of the Virgin to redeem men dead in sin, men who in darkness did not walk properly, men who broke the Covenant of God. So now it is high time to awake out of sleep, for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. He stirs up His power and comes. He brings you salvation in the Gifts of His New Testament. Behold, your King is coming to you!

The Holy Eucharist

The Blessed One who comes in the Name of the Lord comes most certainly in His Body and Blood to be our food and drink. There both His heart's desire and our hopeful expectation combine as one.

The Readings

Jeremiah 31:31-34; Romans 13:11-14; St. Matthew 21:1-9

The Prelude

Savior of the Nations, Come (BWV 661)

—J.S. Bach (1685-1750)

The Hymns for Today's Mass

Processional Hymn	58:1-5 (Second Tune)
Chief Hymn	95
Offering Hymn	68
Distribution Hymns	55; "Creator of the Stars of Night" (insert)
Retiring Procession Hymn	58:6-9

Music for the First Sunday in Advent

Savior of the Nations, Come The CHIEF HYMN (# 95) is one of the most significant hymns in the history of the Church. The roots of the hymn are the Latin Veni, Redemptor Gentium by St. Ambrose (340-397), bishop of Milan.

The history of Western Christian hymns begins with Ambrose. He wrote catholic hymnody in opposition to Arian heresy (the belief that the Son was not equal to and eternal with the Father). Ambrose's simple and beautiful hymns set forth the true faith with dignity, directness, and evangelical fervor.

Martin Luther (1483-1546) translated Veni, Redemptor Gentium into German as Nun komm, der Heiden Heiland. Luther prepared this hymn for Advent 1523, and it was included in two of the earliest Lutheran hymnals Eyn Enchiridion (Erfurt) and Geystliche Gesangk Büchleyn (Wittenberg).

The tune was modified by Luther, based on the original plainsong chant tune.

The PRELUDE is one of the many settings of this tune by J.S. Bach (1685-1750). We will hear several more of his settings of Savior of the Nations during Advent. Today's setting (BWV 661) features the melody in the pedal. This chorale prelude is from Bach's Great Eighteen Chorale Preludes in Leipzig during the final decade of his service as kantor before his death. They are one of the collections representing the pinnacle of Bach's solo organ works.

Also of great significance is the PROCESSIONAL and RETIRING PROCESSION HYMN, "O Lord, How Shall I Meet Thee" (# 58, second tune), by Pastor Paul Gerhardt (1607-1676). Also one of our finest Advent hymns, it was written during the Thirty Years' War and is based on Matthew 21:1-9. The tune is by his kantor, Johann Crüger (1598-1662).

Prepare for Next Sunday

Populus Zion—The Second Sunday in Advent

Hymns: 73 (second tune), 67, "O Savior Rend the Heavens Wide" (insert), 59, 65, 72

THE PSALM FOR THIS WEEK IS PSALM 25. PRAY IT EVERY DAY!

We pray Psalm 25 often throughout the Church Year. The emphasis for this week is found in the first eleven verses. (But pray the whole Psalm!) Our cry is that the Lord not only listen, but act to save us. But why should our Lord save us? Only because of His mercy and goodness (v. 7). And it is with such confidence that we cry to the Lord (v. 1, 15). How fitting a prayer is this, then, for the first week of Advent. For we truly wait on Our lord (v. 5, 21) who is our salvation (v. 5).

Zion Pictorial Directory 2014

We need your help with this project.

In order to help all members of Zion easily identify each other, a photo directory of members and other regular worshippers at Zion is being planned for production in early 2014. This will be especially helpful to our newer members, guests, and Father Schultz to identify our brothers and sisters in Christ by name.

There is no cost.

This project will be created at Zion thanks to Jennifer Balaska, who will take the photographs. There will be no cost and no sales representatives pushing you to buy a package of pictures.

It will be easy.

Photos will be taken in the undercroft hallway at the bottom of the tower stairs.

Update or confirm your contact information.

Please fill out the form with your name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address, even if nothing has changed. As we complete the directory, we are going to make our newsletter and other mailings more efficient.

Sign up on the sheet in the Narthex.

Please sign up for the earliest possible time so that we are able to have everyone included.

PHOTOGRAPHS WILL BE TAKEN

Sundays, Dec 1, Dec 8, Dec 15

9:00-9:45am and 11:30am-12:30pm
