
Sermon Text Discussion Notes 8/23/2020

“Self-Control” by Drew Hunter from Titus 2:1-14

Overview

As the series on the fruit of the spirit continues, the text from Titus 2 focuses on the importance of self-control. While love is the fruit that binds all the rest together, self-control is required in order to be able to grow in any of the others. This text shows us:

- 1) The surprising importance of self-control
- 2) The surprising relevance of self-control
- 3) The surprising possibility of self-control

Quotes

“Self-control is the ability to do the right thing, even when you don’t feel like it.” -Drew Dyck

Understanding & Application

- 1) What is uniquely significant about the fruit of self-control in relation to the others?
- 2) In what ways does the world value self-expression? How does self-expression relate to godly self-control?
- 3) In what areas do you see the fruit of self-control in your life?
- 4) In what areas do you see the fruit of self-control in the life of someone in your small group? Share this encouragement with your group.
- 5) Where do you need to grow more in self-control? What steps do you need to take? Who will walk alongside you in this endeavor?
- 6) How do we grow in self-control?